also the earnest, active type of practical religion which characterizes it in that province. An appropriate gift, therefore, was Henry Alline from the land of John Clarke and Roger Williams to the colony at the north.

Of the descendants of the Rhode Island founders of Nova Scotia, many have honorably distinguished themselves in public and commercial life. The most eminent literary representatives of the blood now living are doubtless Thomas B. Akins, Record Commissioner at Halifax and editor of the Archives of Nova Scotia, and Edward Young, LL. D., now U, S. Consul at Windsor, N. S., but long connected with the Treasury Department at Washington. Nicholas Mosher, Esq., of Newport, was one of the pioneer ship-builders of Nova Scotia, who represented his township in the Legislature, and was a man of most extensive influence. The Northups of Falmouth, have also been prominent. Jeremiah, the original settler, was the first member of the Provincial Assembly from that township. His son John was for many years a leading merchant of Halifax. A grandson of the latter, the late Jeremiah Northup, was Senator of the Dominion of Canada for Nova Scotia. Edward Albro, Esq., is an aged and prominent hardware merchant in Halifax. At Sackville, the descendants of Valentine Esterbrooks have ever been numerous and influential; some thirty of the name are now upon the voting list. A grandson of Eliphalet Reed still lives at the age of ninety years and more, to encourage his two sons in their work as Christian ministers. Dr. Edward A. Bowser, the distinguised professor of mathematics at Rutgers College, a native of Sackville, has a Rhode Island ancestry. It is now evident, also, that we can add to this list the genial and witty Thomas C. Haliburton who died in 1865, having been thirteen years a Judge in Nova Scotia and six years a Member

HUGH[1] MOSHER, NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND, AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

I. HUGH[1] MOSHER, is called " of Newport" in the record of the purchase of a tract of land later known as Westerly, June 29, 1660. This is the earliest known record of him.[a] It is generally believed that he was the son of Hugh Mosher of Falmouth, Maine, who arrived at Boston on the "Jane", June 12, 1632, and whose estate was probated in 1666. This older man left two sons, James and John, both of whom later settled on Long Island. It is also claimed that Hugh Mosher of Newport was a nephew of the older man. The Mosher family had not lived long in England, perhaps 50 or 60 years. Most of them seem to have lived in London, where they were silk weavers and merchants. The only certain clew as to his relatives is when he named Jeremiah[2] Clarke (Jeremiah[1]) one of the overseers in his will, October 12, 1709, calling him his kinsman. John[2] Stanton (Robert[1]) was named the other overseer and although he had married as his first wife, Mary Harndell, younger half sister of Hugh Mosher's first wife, and as his second wife Mrs. Mary Cranston, widow of John[1] Cranston, and older sister of Jeremiah[2] Clarke, Stanton was not called a kinsman. Although Clarke was descended through both his father and his mother from families well known in England, no relationship with the Mosher family has been found. The purchase of land at Westerly, Rhode Island, seems to have been purely a matter of speculation as few of the men concerned

(a) This genealogy, prepared by the editor, several years ago, has recently been revised and rewritten.

(b) On June 29, 1660, William Vaughan, Robert Stanton, John Fairfield, Hugh Moshur, James Longbottom, all of Newport, R. I., purchased the tract of land afterwards known as Westerly from T. Socho (or Sosoa), a Narraganset Indian, who claimed ownership. The witnesses to this deed were Jeremy Clarke, Latham Clarke, went there to live.[b] Several of them were relatives of Jeremiah Clarke, either by blood or by marriage, and some of them married into that family later.

In 1663 Hugh Mosher was called upon to testify in court, at which time he stated that he was about thirty years of age.[c] On May 4, 1664, he was admitted as a freeman to the colony.[d] It was at about this time that he married Rebecca Maxon, daughter of Richard[1] Maxon, blacksmith. Her father had been killed by the Indians, while she and her brother John Maxon were still infants and her mother had later married John Harndell.[e] On July 8, 1668, calling himself "of Portsmouth", he bought a part of Thomas Lawton's farm near Hunting Swamp, obligating himself and his heirs to maintain a good fence on the line between himself and Thomas Lawton.[c] On August 24, 1676, he was a member of the court martial held at Newport for the trial of certain Indians charged with being engaged in King Phillip's designs, at which time he was called Ensign Hugh Mosher. Several of these Indians were sentenced to be executed.[c] He had evidently prospered, for in 1680 his taxes were 1 pound, 4 shillings, 1 penny. When the first Baptist Church was organized at Dartmouth, Massachusetts, in 1684, he was ordained as its pastor.[c] This church soon embraced people living in Dartmouth, Tiverton and Little Compton. His wife

Henry Clark (of a different family), George Webb and George Gardiner.—Collections of Rhode Island Historical Society, III, pp. 242-3.

On March 22, 1660/1, Articles of Agreement had been drawn up between those interested in the enterprise, and among the seventy-six signers Hugh Mosher heads the list. It was specified that the following should each have a full share: William Vaughn, Robert Stanton, Hugh Mosher, John Fairfield, James Longbottom, Shubal Painter.—Ibid, III, pp. 250-2.

On July 29, 1661, this land was divided into 18 shares, Hugh Mosher receiving a whole share. The cost of one share was 5 pounds, to be paid in wheat at 6 shillings a bushel, Indian corn at 4 shillings, etc.—Ibid, III, pp. 254-5, 257.

On Aug. 19, 1661, William Vaughan, John Coggeshall, Hugh Moshur, Caleb Car, ——— Crandall, ——— ——— and James Barker were made the committee of trustees. —Ibid, III, p. 256.

On Aug. 27, 1661, the company petitioned the Court of Commissioners of R. I. that their title be confirmed, the petition being signed by William Vahan, John Coggeshall, John Crandal, Hugh Mosieur, James Barker, Caleb Carr, James Rogers, Joseph Torry and John Cranston.—Ibid, III, pp. 241-2.

On Sept. 15, 1661, house lots were drawn by 65 men, Hugh Moshur receiving No. 26.—Ibid, III, pp. 252-3.

On Mar. 1, 1662, the cost per share was raised to 8 pounds and the rate at which produce would be taken in pay lowered.—Ibid, III, p. 260.

See also Records of Colony of Rhode Island (Bartlett), I, pp. 449-51.

It would seem that the above meetings were all held at Newport and that few of those named ever lived at Westerly.

This land speculation, set out in considerable detail, is not much like the later activities of Hugh Mosher of Rhode Island. Besides the other speculators were much older men. This has caused the editor to take into account the fact that all these records, above mentioned, may have referred to Hugh Mosher of Falmouth, Maine, who might have lived at Newport, R. I., a part of the time. The older man speculated in more than one tract of land in Maine and he seems to have owned land on Long Island at the time of his death. Austin, Genealogical Dictionary of Rhode Island, says that John[2] Maxon (Richard[1]), brother of Hugh Mosher's wife, married Mary, daughter of Hugh Mosher of Falmouth, Maine, and also intimates that John Maxon's wife's mother lived in his family. On the other hand, Noyes-Libby-Davis, Genealogical Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire, do not credit Hugh Mosher of Falmouth with a son Hugh, since he is not mentioned either in the will or the settlement of the estate.

(e) Will of John Harndell, Mss., Newport (R. I.) Historical Library.

Rebecca died between January 28, 1689/90, and November 7, 1691,[f] and he afterwards married a second wife named Sarah. Hugh Mosher died in 1713, at the age of 80 years, probably in the latter part of the year, as his will was admitted to probate December 7. The inventory of his estate was 290 pounds, 17 shillings, 2 pence. Among the items in the inventory were books including a Bible valued at 6 pounds.[c] On May 28, 1713, he had deeded a tract of 40 acres of land to his daughter Rebecca, wife of John Kirby.[g] Hugh Mosher was a farmer, a blacksmith and a Baptist minister. He seems to have lived most of his life on his farm, which lay partly in Portsmouth and partly in Newport. In some records however he calls himself " of Dartmouth." The dates of birth of the last three children listed are somewhat uncertain. There may have been other children who died in childhood.

Children of Hugh[1] and Rebecca (Maxon) Mosher:

i. Nicholas, b. abt. 1666; d. Aug. 14, 1747; m. Aug. 14, 1687, Elizabeth ————, who survived him; 10 children; lived at Dartmouth and Tiverton; called Capt. Nicholas Mosher.
ii. John, b. abt. 1668; m. Mar. 5, 1692, Experience, dau. of Richard and Patience Kirby; 7 children; lived at Dartmouth.
2. iii. Joseph.
iv. Mary, b. abt. 1672; m. Joseph Rathbone, May 19, 1691; 10 children; lived at New Shoreham, Kingston and Exeter, R. I.
v. James, b. abt. 1675; twice married; 10 children; lived at New Shoreham, R. I., New London, Conn., and Dartmouth, Mass.
vi. Daniel, b. say abt. 1678; d. 1751; lived at Dartmouth, Mass.; 11 children.
vii. Rebecca, m. between 1691 and 1713, John Kirby.
viii. Hannah, m. before 1713, ————Cornell.

II. JOSEPH[2] MOSHER (Hugh[1]) was born about 1670, probably in Portsmouth or in Newport, Rhode Island, as his father's land was on the line, a part being in either town. He married probably in 1694 or 1695 Lydia, daughter Philip[2] and Mary (Cooke) Taber and great grand-daughter of both Francis Cooke and Richard Warren of the Mayflower, born at Dartmouth, Massachusetts, September 28, 1673. He was a mason and a farmer and lived at Dartmouth. He died probably early in 1754 as his will, although made on November 15, 1743, was offered for probate on March 23, 1754. He was about 83 years of age. His widow Lydia then past 80 years of age survived him.[h]

THE PHILIP[1] TABER FAMILY.

I. PHILIP[1] TABER, who was an early settler at Watertown, was made a freeman by the General Court of Massachusetts, May 14, 1634.[a] He owned five lots of land in the town. By 1639 he had married Lydia, daughter of John Masters.[b] He was living at Yarmouth, March 5, 1639, when he was on the committee to make the first division of planting land and on June 4, 1639, he was made a freeman of Plymouth Colony in which Yarmouth was located. In 1639/40 he was deputy from Yarmouth. Later he lived on Martha's Vineyard for some time and from there moved to New London, Connecticut, March 1651. Later he moved to Portsmouth, Rhode Island, where he was made a freeman in 1656. He served on the jury several times. On January 31, 1664, he called himself "of Newport", when selling a house at Portsmouth. On June 10, 1669, then "of Providence," aged 64 years, he testified at an inquest. His wife Jane, 64 years of age, also testified. On February 24, 1672, his deposition was read at a trial in court, indicating that he had moved away.[c] It is said that he spent the last years of his life at Tiverton, but no proof has been seen.

II. PHILIP[2] TABER (Philip[1]) was born, say about 1644, probably at Yarmouth, Massachusetts, where his father lived for several years. He married about 1667 Mary, daughter of John and Sarah (Warren) Cooke.[f] The family lived at Dartmouth. He died probably early in 1693 for the inventory of his estate, 231 pounds, 14 shillings, 6 pence, was dated March 4, 1692/3. It included land, carpenter tools and three Bibles. Before August 31, 1693, his wife had married, secondly, a Mr. Davis.[g]

(f) John[2] Cooke, born as early as 1612, son of Francis[1] and Hester (Mahieu) Cooke, came to America in the Mayflower in 1620 with his father. He married, Mar. 28, 1634, Sarah[2] Warren, whose father was also a Mayflower passenger. He was a zealous member of the Plymouth church, but having come under the influence of Anabaptist doctrines, he found himself in disagreement with other members of the congregation. He removed to Dartmouth, where he was one of the earliest proprietors. He helped to organize the Baptist church there, which included inhabitants of Tiverton and Little Compton. He served as minister of this church many years and was selectman and deputy for the town. He died Nov. 23, 1695; being the last male survivor of the Mayflower passengers.—Ferris, Mary W., Dawes-Gates Ancestral Lines, II. pp. 239-244.

JOHN[1] TRIPP, PORTSMOUTH, RHODE ISLAND

I. JOHN[1] TRIPP was born about 1610 in England. In 1638 his name appears on a list of the inhabitants of the island of Aquidneck, at that time within the jurisdiction of Newport, Rhode Island. On April 30, 1639, he with 28 other men signed a compact, which was the beginning of the town government of Portsmouth, in which they acknowledged themselves legal subjects of King Charles. John Tripp in signing this document wrote his name although many of his neighbors simply made their marks. On March 1, 1643, he was granted three acres of land in the town.

John Tripp married Mary, daughter of Anthony Paine, another of the founders of Portsmouth. She had the unique experience, for a young woman of that time, of owning a piece of land. This she had purchased, previous to her marriage, giving in payment a small quantity of wine. Although the man who conveyed the land, neglected to give her a deed, the colony confirmed her title more than twenty-five years later. The birth dates of none of his children are known and the order of birth is uncertain. Ten grew to maturity and raised families but there may have been others who died in childhood.

John Tripp lived in Portsmouth for 39 years after he took part in founding the town. His name occurs in the list of freemen of Portsmouth drawn up in 1655. He was a carpenter but like most workmen of his day he probably supporteed his family chiefly by tilling the soil. He held office in the town from time to time and was for many years a member of the town council. He was deputy for Portsmouth in the General Court, ie. legislature, thirteen times between 1648 and 1675 and in 1656 he served for Providence. He was chosen assistant in 1670, 1673, 1674 and 1675. He seems to have owned considerable land. At some time or other he bought a tract of land in Dartmouth, then in Plymouth Colony, from John Alden. On September 8, 1665, he deeded one-fourth of this tract to his son Peleg and on May 3, 1671, one-fourth to his son Joseph. John Tripp died in 1678. He was about 68 years of age, for on February 6, 1660, he had testified in court that he was then about 49 year old. His will, made December 6, 1677, was proved October 28, 1678. His widow Mary married, secondly, April 4, 1682, Benjamin Engell. All her children were grown and married by that time.[a]

II. JOSEPH[2] TRIPP (John[1]) was probobly born at Portsmouth, Rhode Island, say about 1646. He married, August 6, 1667, Mehitable, daughter of Thomas and Mary Fish of Portsmouth. He was made a freeman of Portsmouth, May 4, 1675, which probably indicates that he had lived there up to that time. On May 3, 1671, his father had deeded him land in Dartmouth and eventually he moved to that town, where he was listed as one of the townsmen, March 24, 1686. He probably lived there the rest of his life. He was one of the selectmen of Dartmouth and was deputy for the town in 1685. His marriage and the birth of his children were recorded in Dartmouth, but it seems likely that his marriage and the birth of the older children took place at Portsmouth. Town authorities often recorded the births of all the children of a family, even when many were born elsewhere. Joseph Tripp died at Portsmouth, November 17, 1718. His wife Mehitable was living, December 29, 1713, at the time he made his will.[b]

He married, August 22, 1695, probably at Little Compton, Martha, daughter of William and Sarah (Smiton) Brownell, who had been born at Little Compton, May 24, 1678. They lived at Little Compton, but seem to have moved to Dartmouth shortly before his death.[c] His widow Martha married, secondly, March 29, 1705, Samuel Hart.[d]

HUGH1 MOSHER, NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND, AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

I. HUGH1 MOSHER, is called "of Newport" in the record of the purchase of a tract of land later known as Westerly, June 29, 1660. This is the earliest known record of him.(a) It is generally believed that he was the son of Hugh Mosher of Falmouth, Maine, who arrived at Boston on the "Jane", June 12, 1632, and whose estate was probated in 1666. This older man left two sons, James and John, both of whom later settled on Long Island. It is also claimed that Hugh Mosher of Newport was a nephew of the older man. The Mosher family had not lived long in England, perhaps 50 or 60 years. Most of them seem to have lived in London, where they were silk weavers and merchants. The only certain clew (sic) as to his relatives is when he named Jeremiah2 Clarke (Jeremiah1) one of the overseers in his will, October 12, 1709, calling him his kinsman. John2 Stanton (Robert) was named the other overseer and although he had married as his first wife, Mary Harndell, younger half sister of Hugh Mosher's first wife, and as his second wife Mrs. Mary Cranston, widow of John1 Cranston, and older sister of Jeremiah2 Clarke, Stanton was not called a kinsman. Although Clarke was descended through both his father and his mother from families well known in England, no relationship with the Mosher family has been found. The purchase of land at Westerly, Rhode Island, seems to have been purely a matter of speculation as few of the men concerned

(a) This genealogy, prepared by the editor, several years ago, has recently been revised and rewritten.

(b) On June 29, 1660, William Vaughan, Robert Stanton, John Fairfield, Hugh Moshur, James Longbottom, all of Newport, R. I., purchased the tract of land afterwards known as Westerly from T. Socho (or Sosoa), a Narraganset Indian, who claimed ownership. The witnesses to this deed were Jeremy Clarke, Latham Clarke, went there to live.(b) Several of them were relatives of Jeremiah Clarke, either by blood or by marriage, and some of them married into that family later.

In 1663 Hugh Mosher was called upon to testify in court, at which time he stated that he was about thirty years of age.(c) On May 4, 1664, he was admitted as a freeman to the colony.(d) It was at about this time that he married Rebecca Maxon, daughter of Richard1 Maxon, blacksmith. Her father had been killed by the Indians, while she and her brother John Maxon were still infants and her mother had later married John Harndell.(e) On July 8, 1668, calling himself "of Portsmouth", he bought a part of Thomas Lawton's farm near Hunting Swamp, obligating himself and his heirs to maintain a good fence on the line between himself and Thomas Lawton.(c) On August 24, 1676, he was a member of the court martial held at Newport for the trial of certain Indians charged with being engaged in King Phillip's designs, at which time he was called Ensign Hugh Mosher. Several of these Indians were sentenced to be executed.(c) He had evidently prospered, for in 1680 his taxes were 1 pound, 4 shillings, 1 penny. When the first Baptist Church was organized at Dartmouth, Massachusetts, in 1684, he was ordained as its pastor.(c) This church soon embraced people living in Dartmouth, Tiverton and Little Compton. On Aug. 27, 1661, the company petitioned the Court of Commissioners of R. I. that their title be confirmed, the petition being signed by William Vahan, John Coggeshall, John Crandal, Hugh Mosieur, James Barker, Caleb Carr, James Rogers, Joseph Tarry and John Cranston. - Ibid, III, pp. 241-2.

On Sept. 15, 1661. house lots were drawn by 65 men, Hugh Moshur receiving No. 26. - Ibid, III. pp. 252-3.

On Mar. 1, 1662, the cost per share was raised to 8 pounds and the rate at which produce would be taken in pay lowered. - Ibid, III, p. 260.

See also Records of Colony of Rhode Island (Bartlett), I, pp. 449-51.

It would seem that the above meetings were all held at Newport and that few of those named ever lived at Westerly.

This land speculation, set out in considerable detail, is not much like the later activities of Hugh Mosher of Rhode Island. Besides the other speculators were much older men. This has caused the editor to take into account the fact that all these records, above mentioned, may have referred to Hugh Mosher of Falmouth, Maine, who might have lived at Newport, R. I., a part of the time. The older man speculated in more than one tract of land in Maine and he seems to have owned land on Long Island at the time of his death. Austin, Genealogical Dictionary of Rhode Island, says that John' Maxon (Richard), brother of Hugh Mosher's wife, married Mary, daughter of Hugh Mosher of Falmouth, Maine, and also intimates that John Maxon's wife's mother lived in his family. On the other hand, Noyes-Libby-Davis, Genealogical Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire, do not credit Hugh Mosher of Falmouth with a son Hugh, since he is not mentioned either in the will or the settlement of the estate.

Rebecca died between January 28, 1689/90, and November 7, 1691,(f) and he afterwards married a second wife named Sarah. Hugh Mosher died in 1713, at the age of 80 years, probably in the latter part of the year, as his will was admitted to probate December 7. The inventory of his estate was 290 pounds, 17 shillings, 2 pence. Among the items in the inventory were books including a Bible valued at 6 pounds.(c) On May 28, 1713, he had deeded a tract of 40 acres of land to his daughter Rebecca, wife of John Kirby.(g) Hugh Mosher was a farmer, a blacksmith and a Baptist minister. He seems to have lived most of his life on his farm, which lay-partly in Portsmouth and partly in Newport. In some records however he calls himself "of Dartmouth." The dates of birth of the last three children listed are somewhat uncertain. There may have been other children who died in childhood.

Children of Hugh1 and Rebecca (Maxon) Mosher:

i. Nicholas, b. abt. 1666; d. Aug. 14, 1747; m. Aug. 14, 1687, Elizabeth ----, who survived him; 10 children lived at Dartmouth and Tiverton; called Capt. Nicholas Mosher.

2. iii. Joseph.

iv. Mary, b. abt. 1672; m. Joseph Rathbone, May 19, 1691; 10 children; lived at New Shoreham, - Kingston and Exeter, R. I.

v. James, b. abt. 1675; twice married; 10 children; lived at New Shoreham, R. I., New London, Conn., and Dartmouth, Mass.

vi. Daniel, b. say abt. 1678; d. 1751; lived at Dartmouth, Mass.; 11 children.

vii. Rebecca, m. between 1691 and 1713, John Kirby.

viii. Hannah, m. before 1713, ----- Cornell.

II. JOSEPH2 MOSHER (Hugh1) was born about 1670, probably in Portsmouth or in Newport, Rhode Island, as his father's land was on the line, a part being in either town. He married probably in 1694 or 1695 Lydia, daughter Philip2 and Mary (Cooke) Taber and great grand-daughter of both Francis Cooke and Richard Warren of the Mayflower, born at Dartmouth, Massachusetts, September 28, 1673. He was a mason and a farmer and lived at Dartmouth. He died probably early in 1754 as his will, although made on November 15, 1743, was offered for probate on March 23, 1754. He was about 83 years of age. His widow Lydia then past 80 years of age survived him.(h)

FINAL REPORT

—OF THE—

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

MOSHER HEIRS ASSOCIATION.

H. M. MOSHER, Chairman.

For copy of this Report, send 25 cents to Mrs. J. H. Howland, Irving Park, Ill. Proceeds applied on payment of Mr. Earwaker's bill.

THE MOSHER HEIRS.

The following communication from Mr. S. N. Wood speaks for itself, and we have no doubt will be found very interesting.

It was intended for publication in the Chicago Weekly Herald, but, on account of its length and "little interest to the general public," was declined by the editor of that journal.

It will be seen by the documents Mr. Wood has obtained from England, that records of a Mosher family have been found in Manchester (a place where the tradition of a "Mosher fortune" locates a part of the inheritance), also the fact that William Mosher, whose name appears as head of the family, came to that place from London. This, too, accords with the tradition.

This information, little as it may be, is, we frankly admit, more tangible than anything we have been able to discover as to the existence of a Mosher family in England; and, in our opinion, Mr. Wood is the right person to conduct further investigations, if the Moshers wish to continue them.

At the convention of October 20, 1887, the Mosher Heirs' Association came to an end by the resignation of all its officers, there being none present who were willing to take the places thus vacated.

We had been much disappointed by the failure of Mr. J. C. Lowell to bring us any satisfactory proof of his assertion that he had discovered a portion of the Mosher real estate. He claimed (as ground for our employing him) to have made investigations on his own account during a previous visit to England; but on his return from London, after we had paid him for his services, he had nothing more to tell than before he went. He has intimated to several persons that he could tell them a great deal more about his discoveries in England concerning the Mosher estate, but would not unless paid for it.

We consider that all the knowledge he obtained on this matter while in our employ ought by right to be our property, instead of his; but he evidently does not agree with us.

The Treasurer's report, at the convention of October 20, 1887, showed a small balance in the treasury of the Mosher Heirs' Association; this will be used in the publication of this pamphlet.

Rumors are afloat that the Mosher fortune has been obtained, and the heirs called upon to prove their claim and receive their long-hoped-for inheritance; but all such reports are utterly false, having no foundation at all.

If Mr. Wood receives sufficient help from those who still feel interest in them, we presume he will, through Mr. Earwaker, continue his researches.

All communications relating thereto should be addressed S. N. Wood, Woodsdale, Stevens Co., Kansas.

We regret the long delay in sending out this, our last report, but it has been unavoidable.

H. M. Mosher.

Woodsdale, Stevens Co., Kansas,
November 30th, 1887.

Editor of Chicago Weekly Herald:

I have not written a word for your paper for a year. When the Moshers decided to send Mr. Lowell to England, it was my duty to wait.

You will recollect that three years ago I showed up the genealogy of the Mosher family, from Hugh Mosier, who settled at Gorham, afterwards Portland, Me., in 1632, for four generations, giving the names of all the sons and daughters of the first Hugh. The Hugh Mosier, or Mosher, of Dartmouth, was his oldest son. I gave the names of all his children and grandchildren, believing that with this information almost any descendant could ascertain his or her relationship to Hugh Mosier, of Dartmouth. The question then was to find out where the family came from, and if there was a fortune for the family in this country. All attempts to ascertain this have proved failures.

When Mr. Lowell's trip was reported a failure, also, I renewed my efforts by correspondence, and wrote the mayor of Manchester, England, which has resulted in information which I regard as of great importance to the family, or heirs, in this country.

I send this information to you, and ask that you publish the same.

THE RECORD SOCIETY,
PENSARN, ABERGELE, NORTH WALES,
November 7th, 1887.

Dear Sir:—I had hoped to have sent you the results of my searches in connection with the Mosier family of Manchester, before this, but during October I was much from home, and very busily engaged.

I hope the documents sent herewith will please you. They are exhaustive as far as Manchester is concerned, but I think it is very probable that more information may yet be found as the result of searches to be made in London, &c.

My charges for the work done for you are as follows:

Searches in the probate court, Chester	£2.2.0
In the Manchester registers	1.1.0
In many printed books, &c	2.2.0
And a full copy of the will of William Mosier, of Manchester, proved in 1621	2.2.0
	£7.7.0
My report on the above will and on the history of the family generally, with explanations and suggestions as to future searches, &c	£5.5.0

Making in all £12.12 (or $63.00) which kindly send me in a draft.

If you would like me to continue the searches for you in London and elsewhere, please send me the money you would like spent at the same time that you send the draft for the work already done, and I will see that it is expended to the best advantage. Any sum from 20 to 50 guineas might be spent in London, and I am in hopes that some interesting information will be forthcoming. All these genealogical enquiries take up much time, and cost money, as so many sources of information must be examined before one can be certain that no chance of discovery has been overlooked.

I beg to remain
Yours faithfully,
J. P. EARWAKER.

S. H. Wood, Esq., Mayor of Woodsdale, Stevens Co., Kansas.

REPORT ON THE MOSIER FAMILY OF MANCHESTER, &c., BY J. P. EARWAKER, M. A., F. S. A., EDITOR OF THE "MANCHESTER COURT LEET RECORDS," &c., &c., &c.

November 5, 1887.

To S. N. Wood, Esq., Mayor of Woodsdale, Stevens Co., Kansas, U. S. A.:

Dear Sir:—The mayor of Manchester handed me your letter of the 16th of September, thinking that as I have been for some years engaged on the task of editing the old Manchester Court Leet Records (which begin in 1552), for the corporation of that city, I might be able to undertake the searches you wish made with regard to the Mosier family, some members of which you state were living at Manchester about 1630.

In the first place I naturally referred to the early volumes of the Manchester Court Leet Records, and although these volumes are full of the names of the old residents of Manchester, I was surprised to find only one reference to any person of that name. This entry occurs in Vol. II., embracing the period from 1586 to 1618, where on page 314 I find that at the Court held at Manchester on the 2nd of September, 1616, "William Mosyer" was appointed a "Byeswman," one of a number of officers who had to look after the well being of certain streets in the town.

Recourse was next had to the old Parish Registers of Manchester, which begin in 1573, and a long search through them was rewarded with the discovery of the six entries given on the accompanying sheet. The name is not to be found after the date there given.

I then had the Indices to the Wills now preserved in the Probate Court, Chester, carefully searched. In days gone by, Manchester and all Lancashire formed a part of the extensive bishopric of Chester, and all the old Lancashire wills had to be proved at Chester. This search was a long, but a very necessary one, because, as is well known to genealogists, no documents are more important for purposes of family history or pedigrees than wills. All the indexes from the year 1543 to 1823 were examined, with the result that only one will of a Mosier, or of any name at all resembling that, was found, out of over 200,000 wills there preserved. This was the will of "William Mosier of Manchester," proved there in 1621. This I have had very carefully copied in full, and it is sent you with this, literatim et verbatim, all the old spellings being retained. As some of the words might puzzle you, I have put their English equivalents after them in square brackets. You will find it a singularly interesting document, and one full of useful genealogical information, to which I will refer later on.

A series of searches were then made through a large number of volumes relating to the past history of Lancashire, and particularly round Manchester, and the adjacent counties, Cheshire and Yorkshire, as shown in the long list of books sent you herewith. The results of all this work were, as you will see, with a regret that I fully share, almost nil!

It is therefore to this negative evidence and to the positive evidence of the Manchester Registers, the single entry in the Manchester Court Leet Records and this one will that we must turn to, and they fortunately afford us a good deal of useful information.

It is abundantly clear in the first place, that the name "Mosier" is one which does not belong to Lancashire, Cheshire, or Yorkshire, or else it would have been met with in some of the many books examined, relating specially to those counties. It is also clear in the second place, that between the years 1615 and 1620, there was living in Manchester a certain William Mosier, who is described in 1614–5 as a "silkweaver," and in 1619 as a "gentleman" and who calls himself in his will, made in 1620, a "chapman," which is an old term for merchant or general dealer. At this time the trade of a "silkweaver" in Manchester, was one confined to very few persons indeed, and it is not till 1637 that I find the first mention of a "silkweaver" in the old Court Leet Records; this you will see is twenty-two years later than the entry above referred to. It is also very noteworthy that you speak of your earliest known ancestor as connected with the silk trade.

It is also probable that Mr. William Mosier died somewhat suddenly and at an early age. There were a great many deaths in Manchester toward the latter end of the year 1620 and it seems that his house in "Market stidd lane" (the present Market Street, and then as now, one of the chief streets in the town) was stricken with sickness, as we find him making his will on the 29th of September, and being buried on the 7th of October, whilst on the 2nd of October "Mr. Raphe Roads" or Rode, who was, I believe, his brother-in-law, is entered in the Register as having "deceased at Mr. Mosier's house in ye Market stidd lane." As his will shows, he left behind him a widow of the unusual name of Thomasine, and two infant children, a girl, Mary, not four years of age, and a boy, John, his son and heir, not quite eighteen months old. Another son, Samuel, had been buried at Manchester in 1615, but his baptism does not occur in the Registers there, and he was probably born elsewhere, which is evidence of his father not having lived long in Manchester before 1614–15.

In addition to these children the testator mentions his "brother [in-law] Thomas Rode," a married sister, and what is far more important no less than four brothers: John, Thomas, Stephen and George, all of whom were living in 1620, as was also their mother, whose christian name, however, is not given. William Mosier also states that he had certain "copyhold lands" (that is, lands held by copy of Court Roll), but does not state where they were situated, but he does state, that he had a lease of a house called "the Globe in New Fish street, London." This was not a public house or inn, but simply an ordinary house, possibly a shop or warehouse, called by that name, a very common one in those days.

It is also clear that he was in partnership with his three brothers, John, Thomas and Stephen Mosier, and I think it is most probable that they lived and traded in London, and that he had settled in Manchester in order to carry on business in that town, which was one of the most important trading centers in the North of England. You will see that he desired that his widow should have the benefit of the money he had put in the business, for the space of four years if possible, or at any rate for two years before she was paid out of the concern.

All this seems to show that he was a man well to do, who had come to Manchester some six years or so prior to his death, and who had been successful in his business whilst there. He did not forget the town where he had made his money, for he left £10, a good sum in those days, to the church wardens of the town to be employed for the benefit of the poor of the town and parish of Manchester, which was a very extensive one. He also bequeathed to them Fox's

Book of Martyrs, in two volumes, to be placed "upon a standing double desk in the said church of Manchester," and to be enclosed or "grated over with grates of iron so that the readers of the same may easily turn over the leaves thereof, and not take or remove the said volumes out from their said places."

It is interesting, too, to note that he had musical tastes, as he bequeaths his "citterne" (a musical instrument like a guitar) and his book called "Calvin's Harmony" to his brother Stephen. His servant, Richard Meare, who is mentioned in his will, is frequently referred to in the Court Leet Records, as he seems to have lived in Manchester, and to have been prosperous in business. The witnesses, too, are those of residents in Manchester, whose names occur in the Court Leet Records.

You do not say where you obtained the information that "Hugh Mosier, who came to America in 1632, had two brothers, one remaining in Manchester," and that the latter was "a silk merchant" there. This I should be glad to know, so that it might be investigated, for as you will see from what has gone before, William Mosier, the only person of that name who can be traced as living in Manchester, had no son of the name of Hugh. I should fancy that this Hugh may have been the son of one of William Mosier's four brothers, John, Thomas, Stephen, and George, who were all living in 1620, and, probably, in London, and that some confusion has arisen as William Mosier, the silk weaver, of Manchester, would, in that case, have been his uncle and not his brother.

Any further information which may be obtained about the Mosier family is, I think, now to be looked for in London, and not in Lancashire, and, if you like, I shall be glad to undertake the necessary searches there for you. It is probable that much might be found by a thorough examination of the old wills, proved in London, and the results of this search would show if the family was one resident in London, or had come there from some other part of England.

I hardly think the name Mosier is of French origin, but it may be. The name appears to have been frequently spelled Mosyer, the i and y being the same letter, practically speaking. I have met with the name "Moser," but this, I believe, is quite distinct from Mosier. In any case "Mosier" has nothing whatever to do with "Mongion," as mentioned in your letter.

J. P. EARWAKER.
Nov. 6, 1897.

Mr. Earwaker sent with the above copies of documents a list of the various Court Records, Historical Society publications, Archæological and Topographical Records, Church Registers, etc., etc., searched by him for mention of the name of Mosier or Mosher. The list is an extensive one, the volumes are immense—the indexes alone, in many instances, reaching thirty pages in each volume.

The search extends as far back as 1552. In Manchester Court Leet Records, Vol. II., page 314, occurs the first mention of the name.

At the court held at Manchester on the 2d of September, 1616, William Mosyer was appointed a Bylawman for the "Witkingreave and Hanging Ditch—and Fenelstrete," three streets of the town near Market Street.

Now, gentlemen—ladies, uncles, aunts and cousins—we have the clue; if we follow it up we shall soon know all about the Moshers in England, and whether any estates exist there or not. If this investigation is to go on we ought to raise $500 at once. Can it be done? We ought at least to raise and send the $63 to Mr. Earwaker. Of course I shall do this myself, if others say so, but I am not able to pursue this investigation without help. If it is to go on, the Moshers in this country should raise $200 or $300, and be prepared to raise $500 or $600, if necessary. I once offered to go to England if my expenses were paid. It may be necessary to do this yet, but my present idea is that we had better pay Mr. Earwaker for work done and necessary to be done. Let me hear from you.

Hugh Mosher's Disputed Ancestry

Research for this history has been limited to American records, but it may be well to comment on what has been said by persons said to have searched English records. Their reports are rather frustrating, for with only one exception, sources of the information are not given, and few dates are found.

The Mosiers are said to have been Huguenots living in northeastern France until the persecution culminating in the Massacre of St. Bartholomew's Day in 1572 resulted in their flight to Germany and England. It appears that only one family had gone to England by 1600, and it had settled in Manchester, where it engaged in the weaving and selling of silk. The names of Stephen and James Mosier appear in Manchester in 1580, and Ezekiel in 1607 (said to have died in 1640). Samuel and William were in 1614 records.

William made his will 20 September 1620, and it was proved in the District Probate Registry of Chester, Chester Consistory Court, 21 June 1621. He seems to have been a young man, for he mentioned his mother and had only two children, both minors: John, under 21; and Mary, under 17. He named his "brother" Thomas Rode and wife and siblings: Anne Ramney, John (married), Thomas, Steven, and George. He requested that John, Thomas, and Steven "admitt my said wief (Thomasin) to be Joint partner with them in all theire Tradings and Commersings...."

Three of the brothers are said to have had sons Hugh, Thomas' son Hugh being the Hugh Mosier who sailed from England on the James 12 April 1632 for Boston. This Hugh settled in Maine not later than 1635 and died in Casco Bay before 26 July 1666, when his eldest son James was named administrator of the estate and James and John Mosier were bonded.

Stephen is said to have been the father of a Hugh who was in Salem, Massachusetts, in 1636, followed Roger Williams to Rhode Island, received a large grant of land from him in Westerly 4 August 1674, and died in Newport 1694. Not one of these statements is supported by Rhode Island or Massachusetts records.

A few English records in the middle-seventeenth century indicate that there were Mosiers elsewhere than in Manchester. On 18 January 1639 Mrs. Stephen Mosyer was bequeathed two silver salts in a will by the widow of Philip Hayse of St. Patrick, Exeter (Waters, GENEALOGICAL GLEANINGS IN ENGLAND, 1185), Mary Mosier died 1653-4 at St. Gregories, London (INDEX TO PREROGATIVE COURT OF CANTERBURY, 257, vi Folio 95). Thomas Mosier of Sepulchres, London, left a will proved June 1654 (ibid., vi Folio 101). On 18 February 1664 Susanna Mosier, 27, spinster, of St. Benet Fink, London, was licensed to marry John Ellys, 25, bachelor, of Bromley, Co. Kent, at St. Benet Fink, St. Thomas the Apostle, or St. Anthony, "now called the French church in London" (Foster, LONDON MARRIAGE LICENCES, 1521-1869, p. 450).

Despite this paucity of records, when in 1830 it was reported that the English government had advertised in the United States for heirs of a Sir Hugh Mosher of the British East India Company, who had amassed a fabulous fortune and died (when?) without issue, American and Canadian Moshers sprang into action, held meetings, constructed sometimes faulty lineages, donated money, and sent agents to England to claim their inheritance. Invariably the agents were never heard from, but nevertheless, every two or three decades the process was repeated.

A surprising feature of these "lineages" is that the mother of Hugh Mosher of this book is always said to have been Lydia Maxson, though the father was either Hugh Mosier of Maine or Ezekiel of Rhode Island. Accompanying statements contain so many contradictions and errors that none of them can be taken as fact, but all should be studied carefully for possible truths.

In an article on some descendants of Hugh's son John in HISTORY OF MUSCATINE COUNTY, IOWA, 2:505, the tradition is said to be that Hugh descended from a Sir Hugh. The statements that Hugh lived in Bristol, Rhode Island and that colonial records and Dartmouth, Massachusetts, Friends records contain his marriage to Lydia Maxson or Dixon are erroneous. Hugh was not a Friend, and the Dartmouth Friends records begin in 1698.

It is commonly said that Hugh Mosier of Casco Bay was the father of Hugh Mosher and Lydia Maxson his mother, but there are no records in Maine identifying Hugh's wife, or any children other than James and John, and no early records of Maxsons in Maine. Hugh Mosier of Maine was of an earlier generation than Hugh Mosher, but their having the same Christian name could as easily suggest uncle and nephew relationship as father and son. Furthermore, their children and grandchildren settled in different areas of New England and New York until the nineteenth century.

The tradition that Ezekiel Mosher and Lydia Maxson were parents of Hugh Mosher is found among descendants of his sons Nicholas and Joseph. Ezekiel's sons John, a bachelor; Daniel, with a family; and Hugh are said to have come to Rhode Island, followed shortly by the parents, Ezekiel soon died, and John and Daniel and family were massacred by Indians in 1636 (not a plausible date), leaving Hugh as sole heir. One account mentions a sister about whom nothing was known. Several accounts say that Ezekiel left an immense fortune in Manchester. Still another is that Hugh's siblings, disapproving his wife, managed to have Hugh's share of the fortune entailed until the youngest member of the third generation was of age, this causing the long delay in settlement of the estate.

The first mention of the three brothers that has come to the attention of the compilers is in the day book of Christopher Mosher (1796-1866) of Albany, New York. He wrote that three Mosher brothers, Hugh, John, and Daniel were the ones who came to America. The next is in the biography of Jonathan Brant Mosher (1808-76) of Chemung county, New York, in HISTORY OF TIOGA, CHEMUNG, TOMPKINS, AND SCHUYLER COUNTIES, NEW YORK, 340c, which says that Hugh was one of three brothers but does'nt name the other two. The name of Ezekiel as the father of the three brothers appears in the story of a meeting in the Palmer House in Chicago 12 October 1883, and reported in an undated clipping from the Monmouth, Illinois GAZETTE. Martin Mosher (1812-1900), son of David of Aurora, New York, told the gathering there that his father had commissioned Millard Fillmore, also of Aurora, to seek Ezekiel's will while on a trip to England, that Fillmore had brought back a copy, then in the Fillmore Papers in Aurora, and that Martin had seen it and could produce it. Perhaps it was later turned over to a Mosher, for in 1979 the three repositories of Fillmore Papers in New York - the Aurora Historical Society, the Buffalo and Erie County Historical Society, and the State University College in Oswego - reported that the will was not in their collections.

That will may have been what Ina Sizer Cassidy, descendant of Martin's great-grandfather Nicholas referred to in a paper she deposited in the American Institute of Genealogy in Chicago, saying that her grandfather John Hurd Covill had records including the advertisement in 1830 for heirs, that she knew where to find all the proof and all the estate, but that "these things we are compelled to keep to ourselves until the time is right to divulge them."

Lydia Maxson as Ezekiel's wife appears in 1891 in the compilation of the descendants of James[3] (Nicholas[2]) who settled in Nova Scotia in 1760.

In 1926 a Mosher woman, mistaken about her own lineage, knew the story of Ezekiel and appealed to the chief of police in Trenton, New Jersey, to locate her aunt and cousin, who were living there. After a search the police succeeded in finding the two living in modest circumstances, and the New York TIMES of 2 May carried an article about the two, who had "learned today" that they were among the heirs of a relative Ezekiel Mosher, who had "recently"died in England leaving a fortune of $132,000,000.

Even today there are still persons living who have contributed to the search for the fortune and who still hope for a share. But Hugh Mosher's "fortune" and his ancestors have both eluded his descendants.

Other elements in the story of Ezekiel, however, are too similar to what has been said and what is known about Hugh to be dismissed lightly.

If his sons John and Daniel and Daniel's family were massacred by the Indians, it was not likely that it was in 1636, when Hugh was only three years old, but perhaps in 1656, when Hugh, too, was grown, and only four years away from the first Mosher record in Rhode Island (Hugh's). The doubtful story has been told that two of Hugh's sons were killed in King Philip's War. Was it instead his two brothers some time earlier?

Lydia Maxson as Ezekiel's wife fits into Rhode Island records perfectly. Hugh's mother is known to have been living in 1677, and in 1680 Lydia and Rebecca Mosher were members of his church in Tiverton. He is not known to have had a daughter Lydia, and the first daughter-in-law Lydia was then about fourteen years in the future. In early colonial days it was common for first cousins to marry, and if Lydia Maxson was a sister of Richard Maxson of Portsmouth, whose widow Rebecca married John Harndell of Newport, here were two marriages of first cousins: Lydia's daughter Mary and son Hugh to Richard's son John and daughter Rebecca.

The record may yet be found that reveals Hugh's parentage. Genealogists should never assume and never give up.

GENERATION I

1 HUGH[1] MOSHER, b. ca. 1633, according to his testimony on 4 Mar. 1662/3, when he said that he was "aged thirty or thereabouts"; d. Newport RI before 7 Dec. 1713, when his will was probated in Bristol Co. MA.

He m. (1) REBECCA MAXSON, daughter of Richard and Rebecca Maxson of Portsmouth RI; d. between 29 Dec. 1707 and 25 Feb. 1707/8. She is frequently identified erroneously as a daughter of John Harndell of Newport, probably because of some unfortunate omissions in the abstract of his will in AUSTIN, GENEALOGICAL DICTIONARY of RI. It is dated 9 Feb. 1685 and proved in 1687. The original, in the library of the Newport Historical Society, in Book 5, pp. 131-2, names daughter Mary Stanton, her husband John, and their children, who received the land and buildings. It also names "daughter-in-law Rebeckah Mosure, wife of Hugh Mosure of Portsmouth," to whom he gave only a good ewe sheep; and "son-in-law John Maxson," to whom he also gave a ewe. Austin omitted the words "in-law" before Rebeckah, also all mention of John Maxson. "In-law" usually meant step at that time and it certainly does this time, for the wife of a son would have borne the name Harndell. The name of the stepson identifies her maiden name as Maxson.

Hugh m. (2) before 25 Feb. 1708 SARAH (BUTCHER) HARDING, wid. of the Rev. John Harding. She d. Newport May or June 1716.

Hugh first appears in RI records with his purchase 29 June 1660, of land in Westerly. There having been little immigration during the preceding two decades, he may have been a son of Hugh Mosier who settled in Maine in 1636, his estate being settled in Casco Bay, 26 July 1666. Nothing other than the same name for the two, however, has been found to substantiate that relationship. He had a sister Mary, who married his wife's brother John Maxson, according to many genealogists, none of whom cites the proof. If that is correct, Hugh's mother was living with the Maxsons on 24 Oct. 1677, when John Maxson was excused from jury duty because both his wife and his mother-in-law were ill. The mother-in-law in this instance had to be his wife's mother, rather than his stepmother because he had a stepfather John Harndell. This mother-in-law may have been the Lydia Mosher whose name precedes Rebecca Mosher (wife of Hugh) in the membership list of the Tiverton Baptist Church in 1680 for no other Lydia Mosher appears in the family until about 1695.

Hugh probably lived for a time in Westerly, but in 1669 he was admitted freeman of Portsmouth. Town records show him there as early as 1668, and in 1670, 1673, 1676, and 1677. In 1680 he was pastor of the Tiverton Baptist Church which served Tiverton and Little Compton RI and Dartmouth MA. John Harndell's will placed him in Portsmouth in 1685. Before 16 Apr. 1690 he had moved to Dartmouth, for on that day John Walley of Bristol Co. wrote to Thomas Hinckley, governor of Plymouth Colony, "He is a substantial man....Whatsoever Mosier doth, he doth publicly, and makes account he can in law answer anything he hath said or done". Deeds show him a resident of Dartmouth as late as 1708, one in 1707 giving his occupation as blacksmith. A deed of Dartmouth land on 1 Mar. 1709 gives Newport as his residence.

He made his will there on 12 Oct. 1709, and it was proved in Bristol Co. MA. He named his wife Sarah, his sons James, John, Nicholas, Joseph and Daniel; grandson Hugh, son of Nicholas; grandsons named Mosher; other grandsons; and mentioned daughters without naming them. They are found in his deeds of land to them.

By 13 Jan. 1748 they were in Crum Elbow, and so was Christopher Devol, father of Hugh Jr.'s wife. On that date they were given earmarks. Their lands were in that part of Crum Elbow that was set off in 1788 as the town of Washington. The only member of Hugh's family for whom there is a recorded deed in this period was his son Ephraim, who purchased land adjoining Christopher Devall (Devall, Davol, Devol, Deuel, Devel, and Dewel are only a few of the many variations of this surname) in 1752. When Ephraim d. 1823 his obituary stated that he had settled "upwards of 70 years ago" in Washington, where he had lived ever since.

GENERATION IV

28 HUGH[4] MOSHER (Hugh[3], Nicholas[2], Hugh[1]) b. Dartmouth MA ca. 1720; d. probably Crum Elbow Dutchess Co. NY between 1785 and 1790.

He m. int. Tiverton RI 13 Mar. 1745/6 SARAH[5] DAVOL (Christopher[4], Joseph[3], Jonathan[2], William[1]), who was living 17 Oct. 1759 when her father made his will.

Presumably the couple migrated to Dutchess county before 1748 with the parents of both, farming in what is now the town of Washington. When the Revolution came upon them their loyalties were divided. Hugh and his brother Ephraim were Tories, but the tradition handed down to Mrs. Polgreen is that three of Hugh's sons fought, at least at first, with the colonists. Hugh was sent as a prisoner to Exeter NH 17 Oct. 1776 and boarded at Winthrop Howe's in the adjacent town of Kensington.

He was of Dutchess Co., a loyalist, formerly of Hicks Hollow, left in the spring of 1781 and went to Coxsackie, where he fell in with a lieutenant of Bullers Corps and went on to Niagara, where he had a dispute with the lieutenant and was sent as prisoner to Montreal. Stephen Hicks and Christopher Devall had been owners of land in lot 13 adjacent to that purchased by Hugh's brother Ephraim in 1752. Hicks probably gave his name to Hicks Hollow. He and Samuel Mabbet had witnessed the marriage intent of Hugh Mosher in Tiverton 1746, also the will of Hugh's father-in-law Christopher Devel in Crum Elbow 1759. Mabbet apparently gave his name to Mabbetsville, town of Washington. On 4 Aug. 1785, Hugh Mosher purchased land in lot 13 also.

GENERATION V

94 CHRISTOPHER[5] MOSHER (Hugh[4], Hugh[3], Nicholas[2], Hugh[1]), b. probably Tiverton RI or Dutchess Co. NY 8 May 1747; d. 5 Oct. 1824, ae 78y; bu: Bethel cemetery Northeast Dutchess Co. NY.

He m. CATHERINE ROWE, b. 14 Mar. 1752; d. 20 Jan. 1832, ae 80y; bu: same cemetery, probably daughter of Philip Rowe of Amenia, whose will Christopher witnessed 3 Nov. 1795. It named a daughter Catherine.

He was probably the Christopher Mosher who served in Hy Jenne's Co. in March 1781 in MA. His will in Poughkeepsie, dated 28 Feb. 1820, proved 6 Dec. 1824, names wife Catherine and children Mary, Hugh, and Henry. A copy from Clifford Buck of Salt Point has added to it the birth dates for all the family, and death dates for Christopher and Catherine.

95 STEPHEN[5] MOSHER (Hugh[4], Hugh[3], Nicholas[2], Hugh[1]), b. Dutchess Co. probably not later than 1749; d. Coeymans Albany Co. between 16 Oct. 1820 and 26 Aug. 1824, dates of his will.

He m. CATHARINA RAUH (ROWE), daughter of Wilhelmus and Ann (Winnegar). She survived him.

He was probably living in Redhook Dutchess Co. 1769 when a daughter was baptized there. By 1790 he was in Watervliet Albany Co., in the part set off in 1791 as Coeymans, where he remained until his death. Mrs. Polgreen, descendant of his brother Cornelius, wrote that the name Stephen Mosher "seemed entwined some way with Cornelius Mosher," and that they once took an oath on the same private record. She thought that they might have been the same person, but they evidently were brothers, married perhaps to sisters.

GENERATION I

1 HUGH[1] MOSHER, b. ca. 1633, according to his testimony on 4 Mar. 1662/3, when he said that he was "aged thirty or thereabouts"; d. Newport RI before 7 Dec. 1713, when his will was probated in Bristol Co. MA.

He m. (1) REBECCA MAXSON, daughter of Richard and Rebecca Maxson of Portsmouth RI; d. between 29 Dec. 1707 and 25 Feb. 1707/8. She is frequently identified erroneously as a daughter of John Harndell of Newport, probably because of some unfortunate omissions in the abstract of his will in AUSTIN, GENEALOGICAL DICTIONARY of RI. It is dated 9 Feb. 1685 and proved in 1687. The original, in the library of the Newport Historical Society, in Book 5, pp. 131-2, names daughter Mary Stanton, her husband John, and their children, who received the land and buildings. It also names "daughter-in-law Rebeckah Mosure, wife of Hugh Mosure of Portsmouth," to whom he gave only a good ewe sheep; and "son-in-law John Maxson," to whom he also gave a ewe. Austin omitted the words "in-law" before Rebeckah, also all mention of John Maxson. "In-law" usually meant step at that time and it certainly does this time, for the wife of a son would have borne the name Harndell. The name of the stepson identifies her maiden name as Maxson.

Hugh m. (2) before 25 Feb. 1708 SARAH (BUTCHER) HARDING, wid. of the Rev. John Harding. She d. Newport May or June 1716.

Hugh first appears in RI records with his purchase 29 June 1660, of land in Westerly. There having been little immigration during the preceding two decades, he may have been a son of Hugh Mosier who settled in Maine in 1636, his estate being settled in Casco Bay, 26 July 1666. Nothing other than the same name for the two, however, has been found to substantiate that relationship. He had a sister Mary, who married his wife's brother John Maxson, according to many genealogists, none of whom cites the proof. If that is correct, Hugh's mother was living with the Maxsons on 24 Oct. 1677, when John Maxson was excused from jury duty because both his wife and his mother-in-law were ill. The mother-in-law in this instance had to be his wife's mother, rather than his stepmother because he had a stepfather John Harndell. This mother-in-law may have been the Lydia Mosher whose name precedes Rebecca Mosher (wife of Hugh) in the membership list of the Tiverton Baptist Church in 1680 for no other Lydia Mosher appears in the family until about 1695.

Hugh probably lived for a time in Westerly, but in 1669 he was admitted freeman of Portsmouth. Town records show him there as early as 1668, and in 1670, 1673, 1676, and 1677. In 1680 he was pastor of the Tiverton Baptist Church which served Tiverton and Little Compton RI and Dartmouth MA. John Harndell's will placed him in Portsmouth in 1685. Before 16 Apr. 1690 he had moved to Dartmouth, for on that day John Walley of Bristol Co. wrote to Thomas Hinckley, governor of Plymouth Colony, "He is a substantial man....Whatsoever Mosier doth, he doth publicly, and makes account he can in law answer anything he hath said or done". Deeds show him a resident of Dartmouth as late as 1708, one in 1707 giving his occupation as blacksmith. A deed of Dartmouth land on 1 Mar. 1709 gives Newport as his residence.

He made his will there on 12 Oct. 1709, and it was proved in Bristol Co. MA. He named his wife Sarah, his sons James, John, Nicholas, Joseph and Daniel; grandson Hugh, son of Nicholas; grandsons named Mosher; other grandsons; and mentioned daughters without naming them. They are found in his deeds of land to them.

He m. Dartmouth 25 Apr. 1717 SARAH[3] DAVOL (Jonathan[2], William[1]), of Dartmouth. She was living when they sold their property in Dartmouth 29 Dec. 1746.

By 13 Jan. 1748 they were in Crum Elbow, and so was Christopher Devol, father of Hugh Jr.'s wife. On that date they were given earmarks. Their lands were in that part of Crum Elbow that was set off in 1788 as the town of Washington. The only member of Hugh's family for whom there is a recorded deed in this period was his son Ephraim, who purchased land adjoining Christopher Devall (Devall, Davol, Devol, Deuel, Devel, and Dewel are only a few of the many variations of this surname) in 1752. When Ephraim d. 1823 his obituary stated that he had settled "upwards of 70 years ago" in Washington, where he had lived ever since.

GENERATION IV

28 HUGH[4] MOSHER (Hugh[3], Nicholas[2], Hugh[1]), b. Dartmouth MA ca. 1720; d. probably Crum Elbow Dutchess Co. NY between 1785 and 1790.

He m. int. Tiverton RI 13 Mar. 1745/6 SARAH[5] DAVOL (Christopher[4], Joseph[3], Jonathan[2], William[1]), who was living 17 Oct. 1759 when her father made his will.

Presumably the couple migrated to Dutchess county before 1748 with the parents of both, farming in what is now the town of Washington. When the Revolution came upon them their loyalties were divided. Hugh and his brother Ephraim were Tories, but the tradition handed down to Mrs. Polgreen is that three of Hugh's sons fought, at least at first, with the colonists. Hugh was sent as a prisoner to Exeter NH 17 Oct. 1776 and boarded at Winthrop Howe's in the adjacent town of Kensington.

He was of Dutchess Co., a loyalist, formerly of Hicks Hollow, left in the spring of 1781 and went to Coxsackie, where he fell in with a lieutenant of Bullers Corps and went on to Niagara, where he had a dispute with the lieutenant and was sent as prisoner to Montreal. Stephen Hicks and Christopher Devall had been owners of land in lot 13 adjacent to that purchased by Hugh's brother Ephraim in 1752. Hicks probably gave his name to Hicks Hollow. He and Samuel Mabbet had witnessed the marriage intent of Hugh Mosher in Tiverton 1746, also the will of Hugh's father-in-law Christopher Devel in Crum Elbow 1759. Mabbet apparently gave his name to Mabbetsville, town of Washington. On 4 Aug. 1785, Hugh Mosher purchased land in lot 13 also.

JOSEPH[4] MOSHER (Joseph[3], Nicholas[2], Hugh[1]).

He purchased in lot 13 Great Nine Partners Dutchess Co. NY 15 May 1752 and remained in what became the town of Washington until death. A Tory during the Revolution, with a son who had joined the enemy in 1780, his estate was taxed £21 11s 3d.

His obituary in the Poughkeepsie JOURNAL 11 June 1823 pays him high tribute: At his residence in the town of Washington the 28th ult., Ephraim Mosher, a member of the Society of Friends aged 96 years and 8 months. He settled in the town of Washington upwards of 70 years ago (where he has ever since resided) when the country between this and Canada was almost entire wilderness. He paid 7s 6d per acre for his farm, which is now worth £15 per acre. The life of this venerable pioneer was long and useful. He found this country a wilderness and left it a garden.

His will, dated 24 Jan. and proved 11 June 1823, named sons Zachariah, Benjamin, Joseph, Absalom, dec., and Ephraim, dec.; daus. Mary, Elizabeth and Sarah, dec.; grandson Stephen Mosher and granddau. Lydia Wood, children of son Absalom, dec.; Sarah's dau. Phebe, grandson Caleb Mosher.

VII. REBECCA, b. d.

Gen. of Western N. Y. - by Cutter

after that twenty-two successive years, making twenty-three in all. He was, for several years, judge of the county court, and was appointed, with Hon. Nathan Gold and a committee of New York state, to settle the boundary line between the states, in 1700. In 1727 he declined to serve, and soon after died. For many years his descendants gloried in the titled applied to him while living, "the Worshipped Joseph Curtis." He was the son of the first John, and grandson of William, who came over in the ship "Lion," in 1632, first to Roxbury, Massachusetts, then came to Stratford, with his family. My great-grandfather, Agur Curtis, died in 1838. His wife, Mercy Blakeman Curtis, was the daughter of Ezacariah Blakeman and Esther Hull Blakeman, his wife. He was private in Captain James Berths' mounted company, "Larm Lists," when they turned out to repel the invasion of the British, under General Tryon, at New Haven and Fairfield, when the British burned the town, the 8th or 9th of July, and died the 11th. He said, as he started, that he was going to bring down a redcoat, but, instead, was shot by one of the enemy's sentinels, as he was taking aim. His body was brought back to Stratford, and buried from the meeting house on Watch Hill, his remains having laid in state on the village green, under the buttonwood trees. He was the great-grandson of the Rev. Adam Blakeman, the leader of the seventeen first settlers and founders of Stratford. He was educated, ordained and preached in England, and, it is said, was followed to this country by many of the faithful of his parish, to whom he was so dear that they said unto him, in the language of Ruth, "Entreat me not to leave thee."

I am also the great-granddaughter of Josiah Peck and Helen Birdseye Peck, his wife. Josiah served in the revolution. He was born in Stratford, in 1751, and died in 1831. He was the son of Nathan and Tabitha Beer Peck. Nathan was born in Milford, January 27, 1727, came to Stratford and built a house just north of the Methodist church, on Main street. It is still standing, but has been repaired and remodeled, from time to time, until it has lost most of its remote antiquity. He served as private in Captain James' "Larm Lists," when they assisted in repeling the British, under General Tryon, in the New Haven alarm. He was the grandson of Joseph and Mary Camp Peck, who came to New Haven, in 1643, and settled in Milford, in 1649. My great-grandmother, Helen Birdseye Peck, was the daughter of Rev. Nathan Birdseye, who lived to be one hundred and four years old, and often officiated in the pulpit after he was one hundred years old. He had twelve children, seventy-six grandchildren, one hundred and sixty-three great-grandchildren, and seven of the fifth generation. His home was the old colonial house in Oronoke, the last in Stratford, near the boundary line of Huntington. An old lady, now living in Stratford, who is quite familiar with incidents of the revolution, says it was told her that on one occasion of alarm by the British troops that an old slave in Josiah Peck's family (Phylis) took one child belonging to Josiah and another belonging to Nathan and toted them to the Birdseye home for safety, to get away from the British. While there the conflagration of Fairfield could be plainly seen from the heights, where the house was situated. My great-grandmother, Helen Birdseye Peck, was also the great-granddaughter of Lieutenant-Governor Nathan Gold, of Fairfield. He was chief justice of the supreme court in 1712, lieutenant-governor from 1708-23. He died October 3, 1723.

Helen Birdsey Peck lived to see her fifth generation, so we see that God, whom they feared and trusted, led them out of their privations, trials and hardships into years of long life and prosperity, that they might have a foretaste of the blessings of peace and prosperity that was dawning on the land of the free and the home of the brave.

MOSHER

Hugh Mosher came from England in 1632 in the ship "Jane," landing at Boston.

(II) Hugh (2), son of Hugh (1) Mosher, born 1633, died 1713, was of Newport and Portsmouth, Rhode Island, and Dartmouth, Massachusetts. January 29, 1660, he with five brothers bought certain lands at Misquamicut (Westerly) of the Indian sachem Socho. In 1684 he was ordained pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Dartmouth, Massachusetts. He married (first) Rebecca Harndel; (second) Sarah ————. He had eight children, all by first wife, of whom the eldest was Nicholas.

(III) Nicholas, son of Hugh (2) and Rebecca (Harndel) Mosher, was born 1666, died August 14, 1747. He was of Dartmouth, Massachusetts, and Tiverton, Rhode Island. He married Elizabeth ————, died 1747. They had ten children, of whom Nicholas (2) was the sixth.

(IV) Nicholas (2), son of Nicholas (1) and Elizabeth Mosher, was born January 17, 1703. He was left five pounds by his father's will, and when married and settled in life was a resident of Tyringham, Connecticut. He married Elizabeth Crandall and had fourteen children. Seven of his sons served in the revolution from the state of New York. After the war the sons scattered. Rodman settled on a farm in Sharon, Windsor county, Vermont; John in West Chester, New York; the others not traced.

(V) John, son of Nicholas (2) and Elizabeth (Crandall) Mosher, was born about 1735. He served in the war of the revolution from the state of New York, and was pensioned for his services. He served under Colonel Peter Van Zoote and under Colonel Thomas Thomas. He also was a minute man under Colonel James Holmes. He settled in West Chester, New York. He married Sarah Dibble. Children: John, married Lizzie Potter; Samuel, married Polly Hale; Reuben, Benjamin, of further mention; Stephen, married Mary Forbes; Lydia, married Alanson Mills; Bershieba, Sally, married Calvin Hall.

(VI) Benjamin, son of John and Sarah (Dibble) Mosher, was born in 1801, died 1867. He was one of the most prominent of the pioneer settlers of the town of Leon, Cattaraugus county, New York, and occupied an important place in town history. He was a prosperous, upright farmer and attorney, wielding a great influence in local affairs. He was admitted to practice in the court of common pleas, 1847, after a thorough examination by a committee. He did not practice in the court of records, but was one of the most active and successful practitioners of his day in justice's courts, a form of practice in that day that occupied the attention of many good lawyers. Among these Mr. Mosher was the recognized leader. He moved from Hoosick Falls, Rensselaer county, New York, to the town of Middlebury, Wyoming county, New York, and from there moved to Leon, Cattaraugus county, where he was among the early pioneers. He is said to have been a man of strong will and great firmness. He married Peace Easton, born 1806, died 1881, daughter of Dr. John Easton, of Middlebury, Wyoming county, New York. Children: 1. Caroline M., married Perry Kysor; eight children. 2. Charles W., married Polly Ann Price. 3. John F., married Mercy A. Ross, sketch of whom follows. 4. Baronett B., served three years during the civil war, member of Sixty-fourth New York Regiment, participating in all its battles with the exception of one; married Harriet Kelley. 5. Francis M., served for the same period in the same regiment as his brother; a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church; prominent member of the Grand Army of the Republic; served two terms as supervisor of New Albion township; married Emmeline Jones; child: Benjamin B., married Alice Sweeton and has: John, Alice and an infant. 6. Gilbert L., of further mention.

(VII) Gilbert L., son of Benjamin and Peace (Easton) Mosher, was born in Leon, Cattaraugus county, New York, November 9, 1841. He was educated in the public schools and Randolph Academy one term. Before attaining his majority the civil war was in progress and his great desire was to go to the front and do battle with the enemies of his country; made three attempts to enlist, but each time was refused. He adopted farming as his occupation, which he followed for several years, also becoming a cheese manufacturer. He was inspector of elections; justice of the peace, and in 1877 was appointed deputy sheriff and keeper of the county jail. He served until 1880, when he was elected sheriff of the county, holding office 1880-81-82. He was under sheriff in 1883-84-85. He served one term as supervisor of Little Valley township. For six years he was superintendent of the poor and in 1910 again appointed under sheriff, an office he now fills.

He is a member of Arion Lodge, No. 812, Masonic Order of Little Valley, and a Republican in politics.

He is very popular in the county where he has a wide acquaintance. He married (first) Adell L., born 1855, died 1882, daughter of Hiram and Cynthia (Angell) Herrick; (second) Agnes M. Tolles. Children by first marriage: Arthur H., born August 20, 1878, married Mabel Canerly; Herrick C.; Mary. Child of second marriage: Adell M., married Francis G. Frantz; children: Lillian Agnes, Leon G.

(VII) John Fletcher Mosher, second son of Benjamin and Peace (Easton) Mosher, was born December 17, 1836, died May 11, 1908. He was educated in the public schools of Leon, his native town, and decided upon the profession of law, influenced no doubt by his father's success in that profession. He read law with Mr. Woodbury and pursued his studies at home under the guidance of his father. At the age of eighteen years he began trying cases in the justice's courts, quite often with his father, Benjamin Mosher, as his opponent. He pursued his legal studies for several years in connection with his practice before deciding to seek admission as an attorney in courts of record. In 1873 he began a clerkship in the law office of Congdon & Congdon, in Randolph, and in 1876 was admitted to the bar. He opened an office in Leon, then removed to Little Valley, the county seat. His brother, Gilbert L. Mosher, was then sheriff of Cattaraugus county, and he served under him for three years as deputy sheriff in charge of the county jail. He then resumed his law practice in Little Valley, continuing until his death in 1908. He was a man of high character, conscientious and faithful to his clients' interests, and uniformly successful in his legal practice. He was a supporter of the Republican party until the candidacy of General Winfield S. Hancock for the presidency. He supported him and ever afterward affiliated

Dear Mrs.Clarenbach:

You guessed it, I am the one whose Mayflower line is held up by the insufficient evidence that Stephen is the son of Hugh Mosher (b.1720). Really strange for I felt that my 'weak' link was proving that Sarah was the daughter of Stephen! Shows you how much I know!!

Now, with your thoughtfulngift of a copy of Stephens" will, believe that little hole is plugged. I intend to solve this little puzzle.

You asked if I knew about Nicholas Hill and family. Yes, I do. For many years, I plugged along on my Hill line when I discovered that a "Chronology" of the family had been compiled by John Lindsey Hill, the last child of Nicholas Hill. (His 21st,I believe). It gave me the leads to prove DAR.

Nicholas was married four times. First to Anna Newkirk 1785; 2)Catherine Row 1811; 3) Sarah Mosher 1816; 4)Sarah Hegeman 1834. The children of Nicholas and(my)Sarah were:

1. Stephen Mosher Hill b. 20 Nov 1816, m Jane A. Sterling 14 Sept 1842
2. Francis Asbury Hill (my line) b 27 Jan 1820 m. Sophia Geer Stanton 23 Oct 1839 d. 19 Aug 1879 Little Rock, Ark.
3. Alexander Adams Hill b 25 Feb 1830 d. 26 Feb 1830
4. (a son...unnamed) b & d 26 Feb 1832

As you can see my line is certainly not the line that you described in you "data"...'John Mosher, d. ca. 1834, Carlisle,etc.'

The above information is not only in the Chronology by one of Nicholas' children, but can be read in the 'Selected Pension and Bounty Land Records for the Revolutionary War'. I had to get the Archives to make a special copy of that page because 'Fa.A. Hill' was written in the lower right hand corner of the marriage page, where it was worn. You could make it out on the microfilm, kbut it would not print out legible! The old gent, like so many of them, sent in the original Bible pages to prove his record.

As an aside....the original burial ground for the Hill family was in Florida, Montgomery Co., N. Y. The las t wife decided to have the 'family' moved to the Vale Cemetery in Schenectady. In reading a film one day, it told how Rev. James Dempster and Nicholas were geeat friends and as their property ajoined, in Florida, they shared a common burial ground. The filmed record went on to give, as Rev. Dempsters' wives and children, the list of names, exact birth and death dates of many of my Nicholas' wives and children!!! This fourth wife just 'thought' she knew where all the bodies were buried!!!!

Do you have any suggestions for me to prove this Stephen linage? I would be willing to hire someone if you knew of anyone qualified.

Thanks again for the Stephen Mosure will.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

New York counties charge outrageous prices for searching and copying, though sometimes the clerks ignore the law about charging for searching. Your Stephen's will is one that I happen to have a copy of, thank goodness.

I had some correspondence with Mrs. Polgreen in the early 50s before she died. A letter from the assistant librarian of the Manuscript and History Section of the New York State Library on March 21, 1957 mentions having recently acquired her material on the Mosher family, quoting from it, but not mentioning your Stephen. Grace Mosher Polgreen did mention Stephen's name as having been so entwined with that of her Cornelius in records that she wondered if they were the same person -- this in a letter to Jonathan Cox, Jr., found in the Mosher folder in the NYC Public Library.

The Clelia Duel Mosher papers, stacking up to about four inches, and in two folders, not paginated, are also in the Manuscript Department in the State Library. I spent a day on them and her huge unpaged book on descendants of her ancestor Christopher, b. 1794 -- about four inches thick, too. In the second folder she discussed that mixup of Stephen and Cornelius, saying that Stephen's name was used instead of Cornelius's in an oath in 1805, but that subsequent mentions of the oath indicated that the real oath-taker was Cornelius. She did not entertain the idea that they were two persons, known equally well to the scribe, who wrote down the name of the wrong brother.

I wonder if you are the applicant for Mayflower membership whose evidence on Stephen was not accepted by the Society. I am not surprised that it would be cautious, but I believe that anyone who has studied the family as much as I have would come to the same conclusion as I. No one bit of evidence is proof, but I think they add up to more than the sum of their parts. There were the three marriages into the Rauh, Rowe, Roe family, the mix-up on the oath, the presence of both Stephen and Cornelius in Coeymans, and the children Hugh and Sarah. I could also that Wilhelmus Rauh and wife Ann Winnegar, who witnessed the baptism of Stephen's daughter Annatje, had a son Wilhelmus bp. 7-20-1755 in the Gallatin (Columbia Co.) Reformed Dutch Church. Cornelius Mosher was b. ca. 1760 in Nobletown, which was part of Hillsdale, Columbia Co., so that seems to put Hugh Mosher, Jr., and the Rauhs close together at that time.

Mr. Stratton suggested that Stephen could have been a son of Hugh, Sr., so not of the Mayflower line, or of a brother of Hugh, Jr. He was born too late for the first Sarah to have had him. As for the brothers of Hugh, Jr., Ephraim lost two sons Stephen in infancy and had none at his death, Zebulon was born rather late to be Stephen's father, and the other brothers left not a record in Dutchess, Columbia, or Albany county.

I was thinking of you only a day or two ago and wondered if you might know enough about the children of Nicholas Hill and Sarah Mosher to make sense out of anything in some "data" sent late in the last century to Permelia Thew and passed on to me by her g. g. d. Elizabeth Thew McDonald. To me it looks like a mishmash of data from your Stephen, his son Stephen, and the Palatine John Musier-Mosher who m. Lydia Ann Copeland and did go to Carlisle, dying there, 1830-40. ~ but not from Cooymans,

This is the "data." John Mosher, d. ca. 1834, Carlisle, Schoharie Co., NY, had siblings Hugh, Peter, Brom, Hannah, Phebe, and Lydia. He m. Lydia Jostlin, lived in Cooymans, Albany Co., until the daughter Sarah was 12. Children: William, Henry, John, Elizabeth, Rhoda, Polly, Hannah, Catherine, Angeline, and Sraah, who m. _____ and had a daughter Lydia who m. _____Bailey and was living in Bennington, Vt. in 1887.

That is about equal to some of the "lineages" I have seen in the library in Salt Lake City. Thoe records surely have to be examined carefully.

I do hope that this will is of help to you. The copy is gratis -- just tell me what you know of Nicholas and Sarah's children.

Sincerely,

Laura M. Clarenbach

Dear Joan:

Received your letter of the 26th of March. I'm enclosing a 5 generation chart with what I know of this branch. Also some xerox copées of a letter from the Mayflower Chairman; one from the author of the Mosher Book that I had cited as proof(?);where she discusses the Celia Duel Mosher papers.

Mrs. Clarenbach is an excellent researcher so I would say that your time should best be spent onother records,if there are anymore!!

Because these families so enter-married, named their children after brothers and sisters...it has been a pooblem long before you or I got hold of it. I had thought that Mrs. C. had made it fairly clear that the preponderance of evidence pointed in my favor.....but the Mayflower people thought otherwise.

In Vol. I of the Sooutheastern New York , a hisdory of Ulster, Dutchess, Orange, Rockland and Putnam by Zimm, Corning, Emsley and Jewell states that early settlers of Dutchess Co. were in Union Vale (Moshers that is). Also it says that Moshers were early settlers of Hyde Park in the eastern part of the town adjoining Pleasant Valley and Clinton. Said that these were Quakers from Rhode Island and Conn. Hinshaw's Quaker records don't show any of my Moshers. Would you happen to have other Quaker records that perhaps Mr. Hinshaw didn't transcribe?

Good Luck in your research.

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

Just a short note to ask if you know what Stephen or Hugh Mosher's wives names would be. I have come up with so many Hugh Mosher's from Dutchess County it's like working with John Smith.

I found in the sir name file that the Manuscript room had a book on the Mosher Family. This is the most fantastic genealogy book I have ever seen. It is written by a Celia Duel Mosher who was a Doctor. It's in two volumes, and has about 750 pages in each volume. Mostly typewritten. Old photographs, original documents etc. It's called "The Moshers and Related Families".

I'm sure your answer is in this book, but you almost have to go page by page. I spent about two hours and only got through 1 volume.

From Volume one--Fairview, New York--You state your grandfather's name was Hugh A. Mosher, and that his people belonged in Dutchess County. We have some documentary knowledge of a party with that name, late of Albany, and if, as I suppose, he and the ancestor referred to by you are identical, your grandfather must have been the son of Cornelius Mosher of Dutchess County. Cornelius had five sons, Lemuel, William, Nicholas, Christopher and Hugh. The son Cornelius was the son of Samuel Mosher, whos father was Nicholas all of Dutchess County.

This is just a part I thought was worth telling you about.

I also checked the D.A.R. Records, Moshers from Commemorative Biographical Record of Ulster County, History of Dutchess County by Smith, The Mosher Family by William, Collins Mosher, Dutch Settlers of Albany, Dutchess County Deeds 1789-1854 and some Coeyman records.

Came up again, with Stephen's and Hugh's.

I think with a little more work I can come up with the answer. I just thought I better check to see if you had more information.

I'll try to get back to you in about a week.

Sincerely,
Joan

DearJJoan:

Please don't feel too bad about not finding old Stephen Mosher! I know the feeling well, when you have just looked and looked and can't find the one little sentence that will say what you want it to day. I really appreciate your doggedness in trying to clear up this weak link in the Mosher family. Please do keep that name in the back of your head, for I know that some where there is a record....probably in a county where we haven't thought to look.

I do want xerox copies of the Winegar family information. Title page then the pages with the birth of Catharine and the info on Garret Winegar...birth and death. Anything else that you think might be pertinate.

I have the record from Red Hook Lutheran Church re the daughter of Stephen Moscher and Catherine Rauh.

Please send a copy of the Poughkeepsie-Rhinebeck tax list for Northeast...title page etc. with information on Hugh Mosier and Stephen.

I'm enclosing my check for $25.00 which you have billed me for.

Please do this one thing more for me. In the Index of Cayuga Co. New York I found listed 'S. S. Mosher pg.503; Stephen pg 363,365 Stephen B. pg 88. Author is Elliot G. Storke. Check these ref, and see if time wise they might be my Stephen. If you think they are mine, please xerox them for me. Then send me another bill and I will remit. Do hope your library has this volume, we do not.

I'm writing this at work and I do not have my information here with me. I need to have you work on my Stanton line. All I have here is...Nathan Stanton, b 15 Dec 1749 Stonington, Conn. m Anna Stanton 25 Dec 1777. Nathan died in Florida, N.Y. 26 Sept 1835. She was born 5 Sept 1758 Stonington, Conn. d. 27 Sept 1825 in Florida, Montgomery Co., N. Y. I needssomething that will prove that Joseph Stanton b 20 Dec 1786 in Stonington was the son of Nathan. Joseph married Jan Vandeveer.

The Thomas Stanton Gen. brings the line up to Nathan and Anna being married...Wheeler's book, about Stonington. Conn. doesn't give it. Barbour's index or Charles Hale Records doesn't help. Maybe you can pick up something? Good luck!

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

I'm sorry I've taken so long getting back to you. Each day I go to the library, I always hope to come up with something but so far not much has turned up.

Leaving the Mosher line for a minute, did you ever read the genealogy on the Winegar family by Ira Winegar. According to this book, Garret Winegar lived with his father at the German Camp and Livingston Manor. (Livingston Manor is in Columbia County) Catharine Snyder was a daughter of one of the Palatine families. Garret moved from German Camp to "Oblong" now Amenia, Dutchess, New York. German Camp or "West Camp" is in Ulster County. According to St. Peters Lutheran Church in Rhinebeck, New York --a Catharine born July 19th and baptised October 1, 1752 was the daughter of Wilhelm Rhaw and Anna. Sponsors were Conrad Winegger and Anna Maria Winegger.

The Winegar genealogy states that Garret Winegar was born ca. 1702 in Germany, and died 22 July 1755 in 53rd year, at Amenia Union. Would you like me to zerox this?

In the Red Hook Lutheran Church a Annatjen was baptisted 27 August 1769, daughter of Stephen Moscher and Catharine Rauh. Sponsors were Wilhelmus Rauh and wife Anna Winnegar.

In a Poughkeepsie-Rhinebeck tax list for Northeast I found listed Hugh Mosier June 1765-1771 and Stephen 1771-1774. I neglected to write the author of the tax list but will do that Monday.

I've checked every book I could find on Dutchess County, some of which include-tax lists for Nine Partners, Crum Elbow 1738-1779, All church records for Dutchess and surrounding areas, some of which are Beacon, Dutchess County Methodist Church, 1st Baptist Church of Christ, Records of Reformed Church at Rhinebeck, also called Reformed Church of Rhinebeck Flatts, Red Hook Lutheran Church, Rhinebeck St. Peters Lutheran Church-Marriages 1746-1899 and bp. 1733-1899, Hopewell Reformed Church, Amenia N.Y. Vital Records 1758-1880. We have seven volumes of Quaker records from Dutchess County. Several entries for Mosher families but couldn't find Stephen or Hugh. History of Dutchess County isn't indexed but I did spend a little time on this. Also Bible and family records by Brinkman for Dutchess County.

I did some checking in the Rowe/Raugh files and also for the Davol family hoping I could tie them in with Mosher's. In a Davol genealogy (929.2 D2674) it stated Christopher Davol was from Crum Elbow.

I came up with nothing in the Hyde Park records, Dutch Settlers, Early Settlers of New York and American G & B.

June 13, 1982

Dutchess County Gravestones lists a Stephen Mosher who died 1896, Sept 11, age 76y 8 m buried Town of Hyde Park. Several other entries for Mosher/Moshier but nothing that helped.

So I'm afraid this is quite a negative report. If you care to continue the search, I'll be glad to do so. If not, what I usually do with other clients is to list your name alphatically with other hard to find names and I automatically will check your name when I look at an index.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Dear Donna:

I've just returned from a vacation so I'm a little slow in getting to my mail. Also I did try to xerox as many of your 'can't find' list as I could. Hope they help you a little in your research.

I do so appreciate you taking the time and effort to answer my cry for help on the blooming Moshers. Mrs. Chamberlain in I have just about exhausted every lead known but I was trying to see if maybe there was someone 'out there' who just might have a clue for me. Her book on the Moshers I bought as soon as it was advertised and put it in our genealogical library here in Houston

On your list...we have the James H. Smith book History of Dutchess County, N. Y. but pg. vi ????? is this the right reference? What name are you hunting on this page.

Any Vircus books I wouldn't knock myself out to find...the info is very unreliable.

Re your Anna Tripp. Wasn't quite clear from your letter if that was her maiden name or not. If so, have you looked at the Tripp family information in Little Compton Families bompliled by Benjamin Franklin Wilbour. Starts with John Tripp of Northumberland County, England b 1610. This doesn't seem to be my Tripp line. Mine comes from an Othniel Tripp (no info on him) who had a daughter named Penelope. She married Jedidiah Allen, a Quaker, in Dartmouth, Mass. in 1721. They had a daughter Mehitabel who married Christopher Davel 28 July 1756. These Devols/Davel (or whatever!) and Moshers sure did get around, didn't hhey? Looks like we are cousins somewhere done the line.

Thanks again for your response and keep in touch....misery does love company, you know!

Saw your query on page 118 of National Gen. Soc. Newsletter for Sep/Oct 1983. I don't think I can help you answer your question or give you proof that Stephen Mosher was the son of Hugh Mosher, Jr., but I can add to your confusion in other ways.

My Mosher line is: Hugh Mosher[1] b.ca 1614 d.ca 1666; Hugh Mosher[2] b.1633 d. 1713 of Westerly, R.I.; John Mosher[3] b.1668 d.8-1-1739; Sarah Mosher[4] b. Dec. 1709 at Dartmouth, Mass. d.9-21-1783. Sarah Mosher marr. 8-22-1751 to Benjamin Davol.

My Davol/Deuel line is: William Davol[1] b. ca 1615 d.1680; Jonathan Davol Sr.[2] b. 1655-1657 at Newport, R.I., d. 1737-1742 at Dartmouth, Mass; Joseph Davol, Sr.[3] b. 1675 or 1672 at Newport, R.I. d. 1726 at Dartmouth, Mass; Benjamin Davol[4] b. 1-26-1709 at Dartmouth, Mass. d. 1-19-1792 at Oblong or Pawling, Dutchess Co.

Benjamin Davol and Sarah Mosher had a son John Deuel b. ca 1737-38, d.1806. After that, this branch of the Davol family called themselves Deuel and it is sometimes misspelled as Duel, Deul, Deull, Dwell, etc.

My great grandmother Chloe Frances Deuel stated that because so many people pronounced their name as "Devil" instead of "Da-vol", they changed it to Deuel. Have you ever heard that story?

I am enclosing a list of books you may already have located or might possibly try to locate. Perhaps one of them will have the answers -- or at least some more questions. Why shouldn't you be just as confused about the Davols and Moshers as I am???

Your Hugh Mosher Jr. b. ca 1720 Dartmouth, Mass does not appear to be the same as my first and second generation Hugh Mosher as we are talking 100 years difference.

Elbert E. Boyd (see list) gives Stephen Davol b. 9-27-1747 as son of William Davol and Sarah Sisson. He also does not seem to be the one you are looking for. I was amazed how many Davols married Moshers when I glanced through his genealogy.

I am not aware of any Davol/Deuel family associations nor any Mosher family associations, are you? There is a Moser family association but I don't think that would be the same thing. I wish someone would start a Davol family newsletter. I would like to be able to learn more about my Davol/Deuels. Also I have a bunch of "left-over" Davol/Deuels which I would love to give to somebody.

If there is anything from the Burton Library on the enclosed list, you may be able to write to them and ask them to send you copies. They are expensive -- about 35¢ a page. They will not let you make your own copies when you visit them but they will send them to you. Their address is:

Let me know if I can help you (or confuse you) further. My John Deuel[5] b. ca 1737-37 died 1806 at Dutchess Co. (Will Book C pg 55-58) married Anna (nee ???) Tripp. Their son Gideon Deuel b. 1760 d. 1-20-1804 age 44 at Cambridge, Washington Co. NY married Mary (nee ???). Their son Zina (or Zena) b. ca 1795-1800 is the one I am really confused about; he died in Wayne county, NY about 1852 (as per obit of wife) and did not come to Michigan with the wife Angeline Shaw and her 12 children (opps, 11 children, one girl was married and stayed in Wayne County). I have a lot of infomation about them in Wayne County, NY, but this is probably not going to help you. I need more information about the Deuels in Washington county and Dutchess county NY.

My Marcy family also came from Dutchess county and it is frustrating to get any information out of them.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

Donna L Benedict

I am not aware of any Duval/Dural family associations nor any Durden family associations, are you? There is a Dozer family association but I don't think that would be the same thing. I wish someone would start a Duval family newsletter. I would like to be able to learn more about my Duval/Durala. Also I have a dimmon of "left-over" Duval/Durala which I would love to give to somebody.

If there is anything from the Ashton Library on the enclosed list, you may be able to write to them and ask them to send you copies. They are expensive -- about 25¢ a page. They will not let you have your own copies when you visit them but they will send them to you. Their address is:

Let us know if I can help you (or something) further. My John Duval b. ca 1775-7 died 1850 at Hudson Co. (will from C of PC-probated June (nee 1777) Dodge. Their son Gideon Duval b. 1750 d. 1+20-1804 age 44 at Cambridge, Washington Co. M married Mary (nee ???). Their son (or some) b. ca 1795-1800 is the one I am really concerned about; he died in Wayne County, MI above 1850 (he pos with or wife, and did not care to (help with the many Duvals in Wayne County) 11 children (boys, 11 children, one girl was married and stayed in Wayne County). I have a lot of information about them in Wayne County, MI, but think is probably just going to help you. I need more information about the Duvals in Washington county and Nicholas county KY.

My family came from Orleans county and it is fascinating to get any information but of them.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

Donna Duval

Dear Sirs:

We have been advised by the Newberry Library in Chicago that to the best of their knowledge, you folks were the ones that purchased Mr. Vircus' books and papers when the Institute of American Genealogy expired.

I've seen the forms and correspondence that Mr. Vircus had with his donors of information.

I'm particularly interested in the MOSHER information that I'm told is contained in file/mss # M1457a, #M1457b, and #M1457c.

If possible, I would like copies of the above files. Please advise the cost in the enclosed SASE.

Thank you for your help in this very important matter.

Dear Vivian:

That you very much for the letter. I wish I would have written earlier. I have been on vacation most of the summer and seems as if I have been out of time and out of town.

I have a very hard time doing Genealogy in the summer. Just so many other things to do. I had about five inquiries into the Mosher line - it seems that all of them are on a different line & they are all mixed up with this Hugh Mosher problem.

I am enclosing a couple of conflicting information reports. The Mosher family information came from a book of 4 pages.

I tend to believe the book over the entry data. One reason being that the book was written by a man that knew some of the older people mentioned.

I wish that I had it all straight but as of now I am not sure.

Please write again if you want any more on other lines

Thank you

Sincerely
David Lee

CHRONOLOGICAL DATA

——RESPECTING——

THE MOSHER FAMILY.

The following data with reference to the Mosher Family, of which there are many connections in the county of Hants and other counties of the Province and Canada, will be read with interest. They have been carefully compiled by William Mosher, of Mosherville, Hants, after considerable research and trouble.

Ezeziel Mosher, the Ancestor of the Mosher Family in the United States and Canada.

Ezekiel Mosher lived in Manchester, England, according to the records, in the 17th century. Hugh Mosher, his son, came to Rhode Island with Lydia Maxon, his wife, in the 17th century; also, Daniel and family, and John, a bachelor, sons of the above Ezekiel. Daniel and family and John were massacred by Indians. The old man Ezekiel came out to Rhode Island soon after his sons, and died, leaving Hugh his only heir;

Hugh having one daughter and five sons, their names as follows:—Rebecca, John, James, Nicholas, Joseph and Daniel. Hugh, the son of Ezekiel, he being the second generation from Ezekiel, died in 1713.

THE THIRD GENERATION.

NICHOLAS, of Hugh, had ten children, their names being as follows:—Hugh, born November 16th, 1690; Joseph, born April 7th, 1692; Mercy, born December 16th, 1695; Elizabeth, born April 16th, 1697; Thomas, born February 26th, 1699; Nicholas, born January 1st, 1702; Mercy, born July 6th, 1705; Rebecca, born March 20th, 1707; Ephraim, born March 5th, 1709; Margaret, born January 17th, 1712. As will be seen there were two Mercys in the family; the eldest died before the last was born. Joseph, son of Hugh, had eight children:—Rebecca, born December 28th, 1695; Philip, Jonathan, Joseph, James, Ruth, Benjamin and William, the latter, the youngest, born July 24th, 1713.

THE FOURTH GENERATION.

NICHOLAS, of Nicholas, grandson of Hugh, had the following children: Freelove, Margaret, Mercy, Elizabeth, Susannah, James, Nicholas, Wilcox, Jabez, Rebecca and Deliverance.

THE FIFTH GENERATION.

JAMES MOSHER, son of the above Nicholas, married Lydia Allen and had the following children:—Olive, who married Capt. Jehu Howland, in 1780, and did not come to Nova Scotia with the rest of the family. She died in Washington County, N. Y., March 19th, 1837. James and Lydia and some three or four of the children who were born at the date of their departure, 1760, came to Nova Scotia and landed at a creek on the Avon River, with several others from Rhode Island, and named the place Newport Landing. The Post Office at that place is still called Newport Landing, and the place re-named Avondale by the late inhabitants. James Mosher was one of the seventy proprietors who took up the Township of Newport, which comprised some twelve miles square, more or less. The family of the said James Mosher and Lydia comprised Amy, Sarah, Jehu, Barzillai, Lydia, Allen, Deliverance, Rhoda, Nicholas, Joseph, George and Elizabeth; the first four were born in Rhode Island, the remainder in the Township of Newport. James Mosher was a millwright, and built the first mill in the Township of Newport for grinding grain for the seventy proprietors, which was built where Alexander Cochran now has mills on the River Herbert. The mill was to be finished in October, 1761, but some accident happened and it was not finished until the fall of 1762. John Chambers was to attend the mill, and the agreement was to take a pint less out of the grain per bushel than the inhabitants outside of the Township. Also the proprietors were to be accommodated first, viz., two coming together, the proprietor would get his grist first.

THOMAS ALLEN, a brother of Mrs. James Mosher, came from Rhode Island when James and family emigrated to Nova Scotia. He was one of the seventy proprietors of the Township of Newport; also John Anthony,

277 Cooper Rd.
Rochester, NY 14617

Dear Robert:

Yes, I am interested in the Rowe and Winnegar families. Don't remember exactly what I put in the Query in Dutchess Co.,Gen.Soc., but my Catherine Rauh/Rowe b 1752 m Stephen Mosher whose daughter, Sarah was the 3rd wife of Rev. Nicholas Hill of Montgomery Co.,NY.

Even the excellent compilation that Mildred Chambertain did on her Mosher Family History fails to find anything that proves that my Stephen Mosher b ?1749? in Dutchess Co,NY is the son of Hugh Mosher, (Jr) b ca 1720 MA. If you can prove this generation link the entire genealogical world will stand up and cheer!!!

Now to your problem. Don't think I've done you a bit of good, but I did look through my records on Rowe and Winnegar...looking for a Sebastain. Frankly I didn't ever remember seeing the name. I feel that you've probably already found these small clues but here goes; Vernow's, Calendar of Wills, p 324 shows'John Row, of Little Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., yeoman. Wife Christenia, children Lydia, Elizabeth Streight, Catherine, Mary, John, Bastian, Philipp and Mark. Real and personal estate. Executors Annias Cooper and William Stewart. Witnesses Ananias Cooper, George Zufelt, yeoman, and William Stewart. Ref: 1421 (R 37) 14 Septbr. 1771 Novbr. R Poucher and Reynolds, Old Gravestones of Dutchess County, New York pub. 1924. In v 2 p 162 are a lot of Row(e) listed. There is one John, d 1771, Sep 19, age 49 yrs. This looks to be your John.

Commemorative Biographical Record of Dutchess County, New York, pub 1897,p 698 is a bio. of Julius O. Rowe, of Milan, Dutchess Co.... He ilist his great grandfather as Johannes Rowe who died in 1771. He left seven children, one of whom by his first wife, had a son named Sebastian.

Unfortunately, I did not copy further for my records and the article may well have gone on and listed the Children of Sebastian. If this article is new to you, I would be most pleased to check the Library and copy whatever else was in the article, if it did, indeed, go on with a listing of Sebastian's off spring.

Do let me know if I can be of any further help. We will be out of state the end of this month, but after that, I'm home. 713-529 0310 if you wish to call.

Any help on Moshers would be so appreciated.

Sincerely,

Rev. Robert A. Rowe

Dear Robert:

Yes, I am interested in the Rowe and Titcomb families. Don't remember exactly what I put in the Query in Butchess Co.,Gen.Soc., but my Cabinetina Rau/Rowe b.1787 & Stephen Hosier whose daughter Sarah was the 3rd wife of Rev. Michaels Will of Montgomery Co.,NY.

Even the excellent compilation that Hilfred Chamberlain did on the Hosier family History fails to find anything that proves Stephen Hosier b. 1740s in Dutchess Co.,NY is the son of Hugh Hosier(Hosyer) & ca 1720 MA. If you can prove this generation from the genealogical world will stand up and cheer!!!

Now to your problem. Don't think I've done you a bit of good, but I will look through my records on Rowe and Hosier...looking for a connection. Frankly I didn't ever remember seeing the name. But you've probably a county found (Essex Co. Quebec but pets Rowes Yarrow's, Delaware or Ulster, a 224 shows John Row, of Little Rowe Martenes, Dutchess Co., yeoman. Wife Christeena, children Wm, Elizabeth Threlgut, Catherine, Mary, John, Bastian, Phillip and Mark. & Real and personal estate. Executors Hanna Cooper and William Cooper. Witnesses Amelia Cooper, George Dutsel, yeoman, and Wm Cowart. Ref: 1761 (2 27) 14 Sept'br. 1767 Sept'br. 8

Poucher and Reynolds, Old Gravestones of Dutchess County, New York, pub. 1924. In v.2 p 162 are a lot of Rowe(s) listed. There is one John, d 1777, 5-9-10, age 60 yrs. This looks to be your man.

Commemoratives Biographies Record of Dutchess County, New York, pub. 1897, p 658 is a bio. of Nathan De Rowe, of Milan, Dutchess Co.... He left seven children, one of whom by his first wife, Retta Jon named Sebastian.

Unfortunately, I did not copy further for my records and the article is now gone on and listed the Children of Sebastian. If this may well have gone to you, I would be most pleased to check the library and copy whatever else was in the article. It is old, indeed, so can with a listing of Sebastian's off spring.

So let me know or I can be of any further help. We will be out of state the end of this month, but after that, I'm home. 713-529-0910 if you wish to call.

Any help on Hosiers would be so appreciated.

Dear Vivian,

I recently joined the Dutchess County Genealogical Society, and find in the Surname Index that you have an interest in the surnames: Rowe and Winnegar.

If I am correct I descend from Sebastian Rowe (Rauh) and Margaretha Winegar, who were married 23 Feb 1773, and had son, Hendrick, baptized 15 Oct 1780. I assume this was the Henry Rowe who married Charlotte Crandall in the Stanford Bangall Baptist Church, Dutchess County, 20 June 1799. But I have no proof that this is the correct Henry Rowe.

Johannes Rauh (whom I believe was brother to the above Sebastian) married Gertjen Scherp and also had a son, Hendreck, baptized 11 June 1780. And it is possible that this was the Henry who married Charlotte Crandall.

The reason I believe the Henry, who was the son of Sebastian, was the one who married Charlotte Crandall is the fact that they named a son Sebastian, but no John or Johannes.

If you have any information that would help me establish the connection between the Henry Rowe, who married Charlotte Crandall, to Sebastian, and thus to the Winegar family, I would greatly appreciate it.

I also see in the Surname Index that you are listed under the name Mosher. As I am sure you are aware there are Mosher marriages recorded in the Stanford Bangall Baptist Church, as published in the New York Genealogical Biographical Record, 1906. I have located other unpublished records for this same Baptist Church, and am in the process of cataloging and indexing them. If you would like, I will check these records (including Trustees, membership and other records) for Mosher, or other surnames. Just let me know if you are interested.

Thank you in advance for any help you may be able to give.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Rowe

What Can I Find in the Family Data Collection Individual Records Database?

These individual records were created during a study about human genetics and disease. The millions records were created from a variety of sources, including birth, marriage, and death records, obituarie records, books of remembrance, family histories, genealogies, family group sheets, and more, but the documentation was not kept. Since genetics confirms relationships in a scientific way, researchers wer concerned with citing the source of every genealogical fact compiled.

GENERATION IV

28 HUGH[4] MOSHER (Hugh[3], Nicholas[2], Hugh[1]), b. Dartmouth MA ca. 1720; d. probably Crum Elbow Dutchess Co. NY between 1785 and 1790.

He m. int. Tiverton RI 13 Mar. 1745/6 SARAH[5] DAVOL (Christopher[4], Joseph[3], Jonathan[2], William[1]), who was living 17 Oct. 1759 when her father made his will.

Presumably the couple migrated to Dutchess county before 1748 with the parents of both, farming in what is now the town of Washington. When the Revolution came upon them their loyalties were divided. Hugh and his brother Ephraim were Tories, but the tradition handed down to Mrs. Polgreen is that three of Hugh's sons fought, at least at first, with the colonists. Hugh was sent as a prisoner to Exeter NH 17 Oct. 1776 and boarded at Winthrop Howe's in the adjacent town of Kensington.

He was of Dutchess Co., a loyalist, formerly of Hicks Hollow, left in the spring of 1781 and went to Coxsackie, where he fell in with a lieutenant of Bullers Corps and went on to Niagara, where he had a dispute with the lieutenant and was sent as prisoner to Montreal. Stephen Hicks and Christopher Devall had been owners of land in lot 13 adjacent to that purchased by Hugh's brother Ephraim in 1752. Hicks probably gave his name to Hicks Hollow. He and Samuel Mabbet had witnessed the marriage intent of Hugh Mosher in Tiverton 1746, also the will of Hugh's father-in-law Christopher Devel in Crum Elbow 1759. Mabbet apparently gave his name to Mabbetsville, town of Washington. On 4 Aug. 1785, Hugh Mosher purchased land in lot 13 also.

29 EPHRAIM[4] MOSHER (Hugh[3], Nicholas[2], Hugh[1]), b. Dartmouth 21 Sept. 1726, d. Washington Dutchess Co. NY 28 May 1823, ae 96y 8m. (My husband's line-E)

He m. (1) ELIZABETH STORY, b. James Island SC 31 Mar. 1730, dau. Zachariah and Mary, loyalists who fled to Nova Scotia, then settled in Dutchess Co. in the late 1780's; and (2) Dartmouth 23rd 10m 1783 JOANNA[6] (MOTT) MOSHER (Adam[5] Mott, Jacob[4], Jacob[3], Adam[2], John[1]), wid. JOSEPH[4] MOSHER (Joseph[3], Nicholas[2], Hugh[1]).

He purchased in lot 13 Great Nine Partners Dutchess Co. NY 15 May 1752 and remained in what became the town of Washington until death. A Tory during the Revolution, with a son who had joined the enemy in 1780, his estate was taxed £21 11s 3d.

His obituary in the Poughkeepsie JOURNAL 11 June 1823 pays him high tribute: At his residence in the town of Washington the 28th ult., Ephraim Mosher, a member of the Society of Friends aged 96 years and 8 months. He settled in the town of Washington upwards of 70 years ago (where he has ever since resided) when the country between this and Canada was almost entire wilderness. He paid 7s 6d per acre for his farm, which is now worth £15 per acre. The life of this venerable pioneer was long and useful. He found this country a wilderness and left it a garden.

His will, dated 24 Jan. and proved 11 June 1823, named sons Zachariah, Benjamin, Joseph, Absalom, dec., and Ephraim, dec.; daus. Mary, Elizabeth and Sarah, dec.; grandson Stephen Mosher and granddau. Lydia Wood, children of son Absalom, dec.; Sarah's dau. Phebe, grandson Caleb Mosher.

30 ABNER[4] MOSHER (Hugh[3], Nicholas[2], Hugh[1]),b. ca. 1732 according to the Phelps Ms., was probably in Warwick Orange Co. NY in 1800 with a household that probably included grandchildren. He was not in the 1810 census in either Warwick or Goshen.

94 CHRISTOPHER[5] MOSHER (Hugh[4], Hugh[3], Nicholas[2], Hugh[1]), b. probably Tiverton RI or Dutchess Co. NY 8 May 1747; d. 5 Oct. 1824, ae 78y; bu: Bethel cemetery Northeast Dutchess Co. NY.

He m. CATHERINE ROWE, b. 14 Mar. 1752; d. 20 Jan. 1832, ae 80y; bu: same cemetery, probably daughter of Philip Rowe of Amenia, whose will Christopher witnessed 3 Nov. 1795. It named a daughter Catherine.

He was probably the Christopher Mosher who served in Hy Jenne's Co. in March 1781 in MA. His will in Poughkeepsie, dated 28 Feb. 1820, proved 6 Dec. 1824, names wife Catherine and children Mary, Hugh, and Henry. A copy from Clifford Buck of Salt Point has added to it the birth dates for all the family, and death dates for Christopher and Catherine.

He m. CATHARINA RAUH (ROWE), daughter of Wilhelmus and Ann (Winnegar). She survived him.

He was probably living in Redhook Dutchess Co. 1769 when a daughter was baptized there. By 1790 he was in Watervliet Albany Co., in the part set off in 1791 as Coeymans, where he remained until his death. Mrs. Polgreen, descendant of his brother Cornelius, wrote that the name Stephen Mosher "seemed entwined some way with Cornelius Mosher," and that they once took an oath on the sa[illegible] private record. She thought that they might have [illegible] the same person, but they evidently were brothers, married perhaps to sisters.

Vol. X R.I. Vital Records/MAXSON

First Sabbatarian Church of Hopkinton.

To 1785.

NOTE—This is one of the most interesting churches in the state and this list was carefully prepared by one who carefully examined the original books. It is the immediate successor of the First Sabbatarian Church of Newport. The Seventh Day Memorial will give the reader an exhaustive history of the church, to which he is referred for full and further particulars.

The dates are from the revised list of members at the time given. For example George Babcock is given as an original member; that is he was on the charter list or the list that in those days formed the church. He appears next on the list of 5d 9m 1712; he appears in the revised list of 1718 and again in 1740. Some names are given as before 1750; that means they were members before that date. Others appear definitely as Nov., 1769; this is the date of admission. The Baptists are not very definite in their records in all the early churches, which is a matter of regret to us as the records could give us valuable data had they paid attention to this matter.

MAXSON FAMILY

Maxson and Maxon family records point to Rhode Island and converge to John Maxson and wife Mary Mosher of Newport and Westerly, R. I. Mary (Mosher) Maxson was a daughter of Hugh Mosher. She died Feb. 2, 1718. Hugh Mosher came to Salem, Mass., in 1632. Later he was one of five who owned the township of Westerly, R. I. John Maxson was a native of R. I. and was of the second generation in America. No descendants of his parents, other than the descendants of John Maxson, have been discovered; accordingly the records which follow, though tracing back to the parents of John Maxson, the emigrant family, are usually indicated as originating with John[2] Maxson and wife Mary (Mosher) Maxson.

There is a tradition recorded in the diary of G. H. Richardson, now in the collections of the Newport Historical Society, which reads: "Today, Dec. 20, 1720, died John Maxson Sr., age 82 yrs. He lost his father and brother Richard who were attacked and killed by the Indians. Mrs. Maxson escaped in a shallop to Acquetneck and her son was born soon after the landing in the spring of 1638 before the purchase of the island from the Indians. He was the first white child born on the island of Rhode Island." Be this as it may in 1639 Richard Maxson was one of the 14 men who signed their names, 15 others making their marks to the following: "We whose names are underwritten do acknowledge legal subjects of his majesty, King Charles and in his name do bind ourselves into a civil body polotike unto his laws according to matters of justice." The 29 men were of the settlement which later was called Acquetneck (R. I. Records, Vol. I, p. 70). Mar. 6, 1640 ownership of 36 acres was recorded to Richard Maxson of Acquetneck. Richard's widow, goodwife, deeded away her property in 1644. There is mention of one Maxson family, and only one has been found in the records of Mass. and R. I. before the time of John Maxson and family. Richard Maggsen was admitted to the church in Boston Aug. 2, 1634, a journeyman blacksmith employed by James Everell who was a "shoemaker" and had a tanyard. Dec. 7, 1638 complaints were made against one Richard Maxson at Portsmouth charging oppression in the way of his trade (blacksmith). He promised amendment and satisfaction.

From various sources the tradition is persistent that John Maxson's parents with others from England attempted a settlement at Throg's Point, sometimes called Maxson's Point, about the beginning of the Pequoit War. They were driven from their homes by the Indians and took refuge in a shallop. The next day Richard Maxson and his son Richard, said to have been 13 years old, and other men landed again to get goods and food when all were massacred by the Indians. Mrs. Maxson and others left on the boat escaped and after a trying voyage landed on the Island of Rhode Island where her son John was born in the spring of 1638.

The names Maxson and Maxon have variations in spelling as listed in the Census: Maxin; Maxen; Maxam; and other spellings. But we have found no descendents of John[2] Maxson who spell their names other than Maxson or Maxon. There were Maxham and Maxam families early in Mass. and eastern N. Y. Maxham and Maxam are given in the Appendix to carefully separate Maxham and Maxam. from Maxson and Maxon.

In 1661 John[2] Maxson with others formed a company at Newport for purchasing and settling a tract of land called by the Indians Misquamcut which now comprises Westerly, Charlestown, and Hopkinton, R. I. He was married about 1665 and was made freeman at Westerly Oct. 29, 1668. He served as deputy to the general assembly from Westerly 1670, 1686, 1690, and 1705. He was overseer of the poor 1687. The colony of Westerly had connected itself as a branch to the Newport Seventh Day Baptist church of which William Hiscox was pastor. John Maxson was a member of this branch church before 1692. In 1708 the Westerly branch was made a separate church. Sept. 20, 1708 John Maxson Sr. was ordained to the office of Elder (pastor) to the congregation in and about Westerly, now called the First Hopkinton S.D.B.C. at Ashway, R. I.

John[2] Maxson made his will Jan. 22, 1716 which was probated Feb. 16, 1721. He was buried in the Clark burying ground near the Paytucket river where on a slate stone was the following inscription: "Here lieth the body of John Maxson, died Dec. 17, 1720 in the 82nd year of his life". The early ministers of the First Hopkinton church have been reinterred on the spot where the church stood and a monument has been erected to their memory. (See p. 58 Brown-Hakes and Allied Families.)

He divided a tract of land near the Pawcatuck between his sons, Jonathan, Caleb, and Joseph. He divided the lands which he purchased from the government, in Hopkinton, between Joseph and Samuel equally. He willed to his daughter Content Babcock, two cows, a bed, and a chest, provided she "outlive her now husband" but not, the same was to be given to her daughter Anne Babcock. See Babcock Genealogy, p. 15. He willed that the rest of his estate after the death of his wife, or after her marriage, be divided equally among his two youngest sons and his three daughters. THE NEBRASKA AND MIDWEST
GENEALOGICAL RECORD
Vol. XXII=20
LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, JULY-OCTOBER, 1944=20
No. 3-4=20

Edited by RAYMOND E. DALE
Nebraska Historical Library, Lincoln, Nebraska

HUGH1 MOSHER, NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND, AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

=A0=A0l. HUGH1 MOSHER, is called "of Newport" in the record of the purcha= se of a=20 tract of land later known as Westerly, June 29, 1660. This is the earlies= t=20
known record of him.(a) It is generally believed that he was the son of H= ugh=20
Mosher of Falmouth, Maine, who arrived at Boston on the "Jane", June 12,=20
1632, and whose estate was probated in 1666. This older man left two sons=
,=20
James and John, both of whom later settled on Long Island. It is also cla= imed=20
that Hugh Mosher of Newport was a nephew of the older man. The Mosher fam= ily=20 had not lived long in England, perhaps 50 or 60 years. Most of them seem = to=20
have lived in London, where they were silk weavers and merchants The onl= y=20
certain clew (sic) as to his relatives is when he named Jeremiah2 Clarke=20 (Jeremiah1) one of the overseers in his will, October 12, 1709, calling h= im=20
his kinsman. John2 Stanton (Robert) was named the other overseer and alth= ough=20
he had married as his first wife, Mary Harndell, younger half sister of H= ugh=20
Mosher's first wife, and as his second wife Mrs. Mary Cranston, widow of=20
John1 Cranston, and older sister of Jeremiah2 Clarke, Stanton was not cal= led=20
a kinsman. Although Clarke was descended through both his father and his=20 mother from families well known in England, no relationship with the Mosh= er=20 family has been found. The purchase of land at Westerly, Rhode Island, se= ems=20
to have been purely a matter of speculation as few of the men concerned

=A0=A0(a) This genealogy, prepared by the editor, several years ago, has = recently=20
been revised and rewritten.
=A0=A0(b) On June 29, 1660, William Vaughan, Robert Stanton, John Fairfie= ld, Hugh=20
Moshur, James Longbottom, all of Newport, R. I., purchased the tract of l= and=20
afterwards known as Westerly from T. Socho (or Sosoa), a Narraganset Indi= an,=20
who claimed ownership. The witnesses to this deed were Jeremy Clarke, Lat= ham=20
Clarke,

went there to live.(b) Several of them were relatives of Jeremiah Clarke,= =20
either by blood or by marriage, and some of them married into that family=

=20
later.

=A0=A0In 1663 Hugh Mosher was called upon to testify in court, at which t= ime he=20
stated that he was about thirty years of age.(c) On May 4, 1664, he was=20 admitted as a freeman to the colony.(d) It was at about this time that he= =20 married Rebecca Maxon, daughter of Richard1 Maxon, blacksmith. Her father= had=20
been killed by the Indians, while she and her brother John Maxon were sti= ll=20
infants and her mother had later married John Harndell.(e) On July 8, 166= 8,=20
calling himself "of Portsmouth", he bought a part of Thomas Lawton's farm= =20 near Hunting Swamp, obligating himself and his heirs to maintain a good f= ence=20 on the line between himself and Thomas Lawton.(c) On August 24, 1676, he = was=20
a member of the court martial held at Newport for the trial of certain=20
Indians charged with being engaged in King Phillip's designs, at which ti= me=20
he was called Ensign Hugh Mosher. Several of these Indians were sentenced= to=20
be executed.(c) He had evidently prospered, for in 1680 his taxes were 1=20 pound, 4 shillings, 1 penny. When the first Baptist Church was organized = at=20
Dartmouth, Massachusetts, in 1684, he was ordained as its pastor.(c) This= =20
church soon embraced people living in Dartmouth, Tiverton and Little Comp=

=A0=A0On March 22, 1660/1, Articles of Agreement had been drawn UP betwee=

=A0=A0On July 29, 1661, this land was divided into 19 shares, Hugh Mosher= receiving a whole share. The cost of one share was 5 pounds, to be paid i=

=A0=A0On Aug. 19, 1661. William Vaughan, John Coggeshall, Hugh Moshur, Ca=

=A0=A0It would seem that the above meetings were all held at Newport and = that few=20 of those named ever lived at Westerly.
=A0=A0This land speculation, set out in considerable detail, is not much = like the=20 later activities of Hugh Mosher of Rhode Island. Besides the other=20 speculators were much older men. This has caused the editor to take into=20 account the fact that all these records, above mentioned, may have referr= ed=20 to Hugh Mosher of Falmouth, Maine, who might have lived at Newport, R. I.= , a=20 part of the time. The older man speculated in more than one tract of land= in=20
Maine and he seems to have owned land on Long Island at the time of his=20 death. Austin, Genealogical Dictionary of Rhode Island, says that John' M= axon=20
(Richard), brother of Hugh Mosher's wife, married Mary, daughter of Hugh=20
Mosher of Falmouth, Maine, and also intimates that John Maxon's wife's mo= ther=20 lived in his family. On the other hand, Noyes-Libby-Davis, Genealogical=20 Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire, do not credit Hugh Mosher of Falmo= uth=20 with a son Hugh, since he is not mentioned either in the will or the=20 settlement of the estate.

Rebecca died between January 28, 1689/90, and November 7, 1691,(f) and he= =20 afterwards married a second wife named Sarah. Hugh Mosher died in 1713, a= t=20 the age of 80 years, probably in the latter part of the year, as his will= was=20 admitted to probate December 7. The inventory of his estate was 290 pound= s,=20

17 shillings, 2 pence. Among the items in the inventory were books includ= ing=20
a Bible valued at 6 pounds.(c) On May 28, 1713, he had deeded a tract of = 40=20 acres of land to his daughter Rebecca, wife of John Kirby.(g) Hugh Mosher= was=20
a farmer, a blacksmith and a Baptist minister. He seems to have lived mos= t of=20
his life on his farm, which lay partly in Portsmouth and partly in Newpor= t.=20
In some records however he calls himself "of Dartmouth." The dates of bir= th=20 of the last three children listed are somewhat uncertain. There may have = been=20
other children who died in childhood.

Dear Mr. Lee:

I have seen your listing in the Family Registry microfiche, that you are researching the Mosher Family.

My HILL family and the MOSHER family intermarried in 1816 in Montgomery Co., N. Y. Nicholas Hill married Sarah Mosher who was b 19 Mar 1792 in Bethleham, Albany, N.Y.

My problem is that I cannot find solid proof that my Sarah is the daughter of Stephen Mosher b ca 1749 but I cannot find proof that Stephen is the son of Hugh Mosher, Jr. b ca 1720 in Dartmouth, MA.

Even Mrs. Mildred Chamberlain's excellent book on the Moshers stops short of any proof that Stephen is the son of Hugh,JR. As she says, anyone who has worked with this family knows that this is the only place that he fits....BUT I need some proof.

I'm hoping that somewhere, someone has some private papers that will be my proof.

I eagerly wait for your answer to this letter. SASE is enclosed.

Dear Madam:

Please advise the charge for xeroxing the 48 pages of your compilation of the Mosher Family by W. C. Mosher, 1898.

If the condition of the material does not permit xeroxing, perhaps I could hire someone to see if there is any mention of 'my' Stephen Mosher b ca 1750's, probably Dutchess Co., N.Y. and d 1820-24 in Coeymans, Albany, N.Y. I need to prove generation link between Stephen and Hugh Mosher b ca 1720 Dartmouth, Bristol, MA.

I have been invited to join the Colonial Dames Colony here in Houston and this is my one stumbling block.

Your help in clearing up this problem would be so appreciated. I've looked and had other people search but nothing conclusive.

I enclose a SASE for your convenience in answering.

I'm trying to locate a copy of a land entry map of Albany County,N.Y. around the early 1800's.

The people that were there are the Mosher/Mosier family.

My ancestor, Stephen Mosher, died in Coeymans 1820/24 and I have a copy of his will under the name 'Stephen Mosure'

Would you have copies of the Land Entry papers?

I enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your convenience.

Dear Elizabeth:

Seasons Greetings!

I'm starting the New Year off right, I hope, and trying to catch up on my correspondence.

Your very nice letter came before Christmas but I was unable to find the time to answer properly. Many thanks for the extra time that you spent. I, too, have the Mosher book by Mildred Chamberlain. She has done a splendid job but right where it comes to 'my' Stephen' she, too, cannot quite nail him down as to his father. All things point that way but no decisive proof and of course that is what we genealogist must have. Maybe some day, the powers that be will decide the Mrs. C. knows what she is talking about. As she wrote me, 'anyone who has done any research on the Moshers knows that this is the only place that this Stephen will fit'. My Mayflower lineage was rejected on this weak point in the line, fortunately I had another line to join the organization with. I have asked several very prominent certified genealogists to see what they could do with this and they all say that if'Mildred thought that was the line' I couldn't improve on the research!!!!

I'm enclosing $1.00 for the xeroxing that you did. I do appreciate the time and effort. I am going to tell my Head Librarian your charges etc. so that our patrons at Clayton Genealogical Library here in Houston will be able to take advantage of your excellent services.

Have a Healthy,Happy 1985.

Dear Friend:

Well, I brought your letter home with me by mistake instead of mailing, so I immediately went to look for the Mosher family history (which my husband bought on the off chance that they might be some connection with his Moger/Moshers, but they don't seem to be, at least not in the last 8 generations). The book is Descendants of Hugh Mosher and Rebecca Maxson through Seven Generations, and the compilers are Mildred (Mosher) Chamberlain and Laura (McGaffey) Clarenbach, and they published it in 1980. It is 795 solid pages, and I thought it would say somewhere in it where it could be bought, but I cannot find that information. However, if they are correct, your Stephen is the son of Hugh^4 Mosher (Hugh^3, Nicholas^2, Hugh^1) and Sarah Davol. I doubt that there will be anything on them in Friends' records, since material on Stephen mentions his daughter's being baptized at Red Hook. So what I will do is photocopy the pertinent pages, and you can let your conscience be your guide as to payment.

With best wishes,
Elizabeth Moger

P.S. If you get hold of the Chamberlain-Clarenbach book, my husband thinks he's descended from Hugh Moger/Mosher of Casco Bay, later of Long Island, but we cannot prove it, because he cannot get back before 1811 and his great grandfather Abraham L. Moger.

P.P.S. I realize that I have forgotten the given name of the Devol/Davol that was supposed to be Stephen's mother, so maybe this is all otiose. Hugh^3 is also supposed to have married a Sarah Devol! This is quite possible, but gives one furiously to think about the reliability of the records.

Dear Friend:

This is in answer to your letter of 4-XII-1984 with reference to Stephen Mosher.

The Records Committee, at its last meeting on 1-XII-1984, set a minimum charge for research of $10.00, for one hour's preliminary search, and $10.00 per hour for each hour thereafter. I have been directed to make this known to patrons and receive their authorization before undertaking any work.

It is perfectly possible that your Stephen Mosher is who you think he is, and even that I may be able to find proof of the fact, but I can make no guarantees. There were certainly Moshers in the Dutchess County Friends' Meetings, and also in Coeymans Monthly Meeting, but that does not say that I shall be able to establish the necessary connections.

There is a Mosher family history that my husband has home, but I cannot for the life of me rememember the names of its compilers, and he is not home right now so that I have not been able to reach him by telephone and ask him. I shall certainly look through it when I get home.

I dare say you would rather have me go ahead on this research, but directions are directions, so I will await further word from you.

With best wishes,

We have a copy here of the book you referred to in your letter of August 29th which was forwarded from the Colonial Dames of America to this Society.

Dear Mr. Mosher:

I have received your address from Everton's search in their 'Roots' cellar.

I, too, would like to know about these Moshers.

My Sarah Mosher married Nicholas Hill in 1839 in Montgomery County, N. Y. All evidence points to the fact that her father was Stephen Mosher, son of Hugh Mosher b 1720 Darthmouth, MA. and Sarah Davol, dau of Christopher Davol.

Mildred Chamberlain's book, Descendants of Hugh Mosher and Rebecca Maxson Through Seven Generations states that Stephen is probably the son of Hugh.

I am in search of some piece of evidence that states that my theory is correct (Mildred's too).

In your research, have you happened on anything that would help me break this brick wall? Or perhaps you know of someone who is working on this line?

I enclose a SASE, hoping that you can give me a clue or something. It would really be appreciated.

Wish I could help with your man, but my n otes didn/t turn up a thing. If you are not familiar with the above mentioned book, I'll be glad to zeroxed any pages with your James on it.

Stephen Mosher b. ca 1749? Dutchess Co.,? N. Y.

Dear Mrs. Jordan,
Sorry for the delay in answering your letter. I am very familiar with Mildred Chamberlain's book and consider it to be the best source on the Moshers.

Your Sarah Mosher seems to be on page 79, married Nicholas Hill 1816. This date does not agree with yours but I am sure that only means the date is wrong somewhere. I would recommend that you check as many of the references Mildred gives as you can. The Vale cemetary records look like a good place to start.

I have found mistakes in the book and this may be another one. My own James appears on page 71.

I have nothing further on your Sarah, good luck

Dear Mr. Urch:

I'm just back from vacation and trying to catch up on my correspondence.

I do so appreciate the time you took to answer my query. You have my thanks plus the enclosed stamp! There were several answers to my plea for help...nothing conslusive such as ev such as conclusive evidence to solve my problembbut so heart warming to know that people cared.

It does appear that we are distant cousins. One of my Rev. War ancestors married Sarah Mosher in 1839 in Montgomery Co., N.Y. Her father was the Stephen that I would so like to have some record stating that he was the son of Hugh (b ca 1720)

In case you haven't seen the relatively new book by Mildred Mosher Chamberlain and Laura McGaffy Clarenbach, Descendants of Hugh Mosher and Rebecca Maxson Through Seven Generations it is a very good record of the Moshers. Well documented but, like me, when it came to my Stephen Mosher, they couldn't definately place him as a son of Hugh.

Again my thanks to you.

Dear Vivian,

See your querie in N.G.S. Newsletter, for information on Hugh and Sarah Davol Mosher. Sorry I can't help you directly, but perhaps the following may give you a lead, as Mosher is on my deceased Mother's line with the Wilcox of Dartmouth, Mass., which has proven my line to the Mayflower, thanks to Mr. Clifford Buck, Genealogist, of Salt Pt. Turnpike, Salt Point, N.Y. 12578. He was able to locate the records needed at Poughkeepsie to prove identity of Eunice Wilcox, who m. 1777, John Robinson, Pawling, N.Y.

"Little Compton Families" by B.F. Wilbour, has the following: Hugh Mosher, b. 17 March, 1721/22 m. 7 Dec. 1740, Elizabeth Butts. He was s/o Daniel[3] Mosher, (Hugh[2], Hugh[1]) died Dartmouth, 1751. M. 1704 Elizabeth Edwards.

Dear Elora:

I've just returned from vacation or I would have answered sooner. I do appreciate your time and effort in answering my query. My thanks and the enclosed stamp!

My correspondence with Mrs. Chamberlain, one of the authors of the Mosher book you listed, shows that she is as 'stone walled' as I!! The preponderance of evidence points to the fact that my Stephen is the sone of Hugh b cal720 but I do think that somewhere there is a record that says 'my son, Stephen'. Maybe, some day I will find it.

This lack of proof has stopped me of my Mayflower lines to George Soule but I'll just keep on plugging.

Dear Researcher:

Saw your query in the NGS Newsleter.

I do not have the definite proof that you ask for but maybe this information will lead to it.

Are you aware of or do you already have the book DESCENDANTS OF HUGH MOSHER & REBECCA MAXSON THROUGH SEVEN GENERATIONS compiled by Mildred (Mosher) Chamberlain and Laura (McGaffy) Clarenbach? The Houston Library may have a copy. If not there is a copy in the Special Collections Library, 423 Central, N E, Albuquerque, NM 87102. They would probably copy the pages listing the name you are interested in.

The enclosed pages do have the names you are looking for though the dates do not match yours.

Am sorry the pages I copied relevant to my line did not include what you are looking for.

Do hope this will be helpful.

Dear Mrs. Crawford:

Your name has been given to me by Mr. Paul Urch of CA. as one who is working on the MOSHER family. He seems to think that we are in the same line.

I have a Sarah Mosher b 1792 in Albany, N.Y. whose father was Stephen Mosher b ca 1749, presumably in Dutchess Co.,N.Y. Stephen Mosher m Catherine Rauh/Rowe.

The above is all documented. Mrs. Chamberlain's book on the Moshers also has this information. What has got me stumped is that I cannot PROVE that Stephen Mosher is the son of HUGH MOSHER,'JR', b ca 1720 Dartmouth,MA. and married to Sarah DAVOL. (neither can Mrs. Chamberlain, I have been in correspondence with her).

If you could advise me of any information available that will prove this generation link, I would be so grateful!!

I just feel that somewhere, a member of the family has got a little piece of paper that says....'my son Stephen, signed HUGH' Hugh Mosher' Wouldn't that be perfect???

I enclose a SASE and just pray that you have a clue for me.

Thanx for the stamp. Same one.

Dear Mrs Jordan,

I'm wondering if you are familiar with the name of Mrs. Thomas Crawford, 10548 Stone Canyon Road #228, Dallas Tx.? 75230

She also is on this Mosher search, whom I have replied to her query in our Nova Scotia newsletter. You seem to be on the same track. If you do not know her, now is the time to get with it, I'm sure you will enjoy her correspondence. She also mentions Chamberlain and Clarenback. (Eugene A. Stratton)

Our Mayflower General Historian resigned in July of this year, which has been a great surprise and disappointment, and a Mrs. Barbara Merrick replaced him Sept. 10, which left a hang-up of 42 Calif. applicants for the period. Dear Sybil:

Hope that the mail man is able to deliver this to you!! May the New Year bring us better weather here in Tx but 'they' don't seem to give us much hope, do they?

Thank you for your answer to my letter re the Mosher line. I intend to write to the two researchers that you mentioned in your letter.

You didn't get the R.I. flyer into the envelope but that is alright. I'm sure that the Clayton Library has the address and I will look into the joining of same. I'm trying, before the year is too old to see if I can't clear off the top of my desk, just enough to see the surface a little. It does pile up when you work and just can't get around to answering as soon as you would like.

I have several feelers out...going the route of the Davol line ....hoping that going in the 'back door' might give me something on my Mosher. So far, nothing, but hope is always with me. I do not give up easily.

Thanks again for your letter and the two addresses.

Good Luck in your research.

Sincerely,

P.S. Just had a thought. The next time you are in the Dallas Library (I assume that you do go there for research), would you take a quick look at their Woodard Family by Jewell G. Woodard. I'm anxious to see if these Woodards are in New York/Vermont. I have a Grandmother..that I know nothing about. An orphan, b Dec 1844 in N.Y. m, 1863 in Ft. Jackson,Montgomery Co.,N.Y. to Enders Stanton Hill. She died in Little Rock,Ark. 1917. If this book is in the neighborhood where she was, I want to see it!! Is there anything I can look up for you at Clayton Library??

Dear Vivian:

Thank you for your card in response to the Mosher Family Reunion ad in the Genealogical Helper. I apologize for the long interval in responding to your card.

The Mosher Reunion is an annual reunion for the descendants of Asa Mosher, Jr., who left Mt. Gilead, Ohio and settled in Warren Co., Iowa in 1853. Of course the reunion is open to other interested persons as well.

I am the main person actively researching the Mosher genealogy. A cousin, Earl Smith, published in 1964 a book of the descendants of Asa Mosher, Jr. I am attempting to update the book and research the early history of the Moshers.

Asa Mosher, Jr. is a descendant of Hugh Mosher who came to America in 1632 and settled in the Massachusetts-Rhode Island area. Later the family moved to upstate New York. Asa Mosher, Sr. his wife Bethia, and their children moved from Washington Co., N.Y. to Mt. Gilead, Ohio in 1818.

I checked my materials for your Hugh Mosher b. ca1720. I found in Origin and History of the Mosher Family and Genealogy of one Branch of that Family from the Year 1600 to the Present Time, compiled by William C. Mosher, A. M., Alhambra, Cal., 1898 (Library of Congress holdings), p. 17, a reference which may be of some help to you.

Daniel Mosher, son of Hugh Mosher, second, born 1678, died 1751, married Elizabeth Edwards, 1704; children: Benjamin b. April 19, 1706; Daniel, b. July 1, 1709; Micah, b. Sept. 27, 1711; Constant, born Sept. 11, 1713; Rachel, b. June 14, 1715; George, b. May 9, 1717; Ephriam, b. Dec. 8, 1718; Roger, b. March 3, 1720; Hugh b. March 17, 1722; Patience, b. June 29, 1724; Mercy, b. Oct. 12, 1726.

Unfortunately, this line is not traced any further in the book. However, part of the Constant Mosher line is printed on page 42 of the same book.

I wish I could be of further help to you. My Mosher materials are limited. You might contact Mrs. Judith Burkhardt, 1056 W. Water St., Berne, IN 46711, who appears to be descended from Hugh Mosher who came to America in 1632. However, I am not able to help her further.

Thank you for your card in response to the Mosher Family Reunion ad in the Genealogical Helper. I appreciate the long interval in responding to your card.

The Mosher reunion is an annual reunion for the descendants of Asa Mosher, Sr., who left Mt. Upton, Ohio and settled in Huron Co., Iowa in 1853. Of course the reunion is open to other interested persons as well.

I am the main person actively responsible for the Mosher reunion. A cousin, Earl Smith, published in 1964 a book of the descendants of Asa Mosher, Jr. I am attempting to update the book and research the early history of the Mosher's.

Dear Vivian:

I was pleased to hear from you, and had heard from Mr. Urch not long ago regarding a Mosher/Wilcox matter.

I do indeed have a Sarah Mosher in my direct line, but she is, unfortunately, not the Sarah to whom you have reference. My Sarah was one of those in Nova Scotia, born in the first decade of the 1800s.

I actually have a second Mosher line, but it does not include Sarah, and is quite similar to the above, also focusing on those having made an early move to Nova Scotia.

If you do not already subscribe, I highly recommend The Rhode Island Genealogical Register. Published quarterly, it is based entirely on primary records. One of their services to the readers is a listing of persons who left Rhode Island, as reflected by the 1850 census records. For instance, they have published a listing of those persons living in Madison County, NY at the 1850 census who showed RI to be their birthplace. If such information is available for Dutchess County, this, of course, could be useful information to you. At $25.00 per year, you cannot make a better investment. Membership in the RI Genealogical Register Group also enables you to purchase certain valuable publications not available elsewhere.

If you haven't already done so, you might want to consider attacking your problem through the Davol line, hoping that a Davol deed or will might name grandchildren.

I am sorry I cannot give you something more definitive in response to your letter, but hope that something in the above may prove useful to you.

It appears that our Moshers are in the same place...let's hope that they are of the same line. From what you gave me I couldn't tell one way or the other. I checked my misc. file for your John and Elizabeth (Haight)...nothing. I'm going to check our Family Histories at the aLibrary when I go to work tomorrow. Maybe there is a Haight Family that will help you. You did know that I work at Clayton Genealogical Library?

Are you familiar with the rather new book on the Moshers by Mrs. Chamberlain? I will check that also for you tomorrow to see if she has traced that branch.

Here is my line:

My Nicholas Hill married Sarah Mosher b 1792 Albany Co.,N.Y.
She was dau/Stephen Mosher b ca 1749 in Dutchess Co.,N.Y.
Stephen Mosher died ca 1820/24 in Coeymans, Albany, N.Y.

Your name and address was given to me by Mr. Bill Stilley of Mo. who said in your correspondence that your Mosher's where of Dutchess Co. N.Y. as mine were and possibly we could help one another.

I have been stuck on John Mosher, b. ca. 1762 (where?); d. 1836 Dutchess Co., N.Y. (Unionvale), married to Elizabeth Haight d/o Stephen for quite sometime now.

Have you this name in your family or possibly in your Mosher collection? I have a fairly good Mosher collection I gathered while searching for John and I'd be more than glad to search my collection for any information I might have on your Moshers, and share it with you.

Enclosed is an S.A.S.E. for your convenience. I do hope I will hear from you.

Dear Vivian,

Many thanks for ans. my letter re: my John Mosher (w. Eliz. Haight). I do hope we can find a connection between our Moshers.

No, I did not know that you worked at the Clayton Gen. Lib. It was just suggested to me that I contact you since we both had Moshers in Dutchess Co., N.Y. I am sure even working at a Gen. Lib. leaves you little time for your own personal research, but nice when you do have a minute you have easy access to many records.

I will certainly look through my files for your Stephen / Hough Jr. connection and if anything found will keep an eye out for them at The Ft. Wayne, In. Lib. where I do my research.

Yes, I have a copy of the Mosher bk. by Chamberlain. If it were not for this bk. I would not know that my Jeremiah was s/o John & Eliz. Haight Moshers.

I hope to hear from you if you learn anything.

Dear Dr. Gunter:

I found your address from a query, re Mosher. I do not connect with your line but I'm writing to see if by chance, in kyour misc. file you just might have a clue for my Mosher line.

From the information you gave I believe that Dr. Mildred Chamberlain, author of Descendants of Hugh Mosher had been in touch with you. She does have information on your family in her book. If by chance you do not have this I'll be happy to xerox the page.

My line is through Hugh ..his son Nicholas...Hugh b.1690.. Hugh,Jr.ca 1720...his son, Stephen b ca 1749, Dutchess,N.Y... his dau. Sarah b 1792 Albany,NY.

I'm fouled up in not being able to prove, with good evidence, the Stephen. is the son of Hugh or that Sarah is the dau. of Stephen. This seems to be the universal 'hang up' for most Mosher resaachers who are trying to prove Mayflower lineage through the Davol marriages and on back to George Soule of the Mayflower.

If you have corresponded with anyone of this line...misery loves company, I guess. But would you send me their address? I'm hoping that somewhere is a Bible record or some private paper that will be my good proof.

Any suggestion or help that you can give me would be most welcomed. I'm at the end of the old rope.

It is indeed, nice hearing from you again! The time does go by so very quickly, but we do wonder about those nice people we have not heard from in so long.....so do keep in touch!!!

I am enclosing the 6 copies you requested. If for any reason they are not satisfactory, please let me know. I placed our county department seal on the title pages as you requested. I am enclosing your receipt in the amount of $5.00, for which I thank you very kindly. Many years ago you sent some records to me from 'The Reformed Protestant Dutch Church of Florida" that I know find I have misplaced your original xerox copy. As you know a xerox or a xerox just doesn't work!

Please make more copies for me of the following pages:

1. Title page, with a property stamp or something that makes it 'officially' from your library.

2. Page 59 ....this is the number a lower right hand corner. the topenumber is blurred. This record shows birth of Enders Stanton Hill, 23 Aug 1841, son of Asbury Hill and Sophia Stanton.

3. Pg. 105...this # at top righthhand corneroof page. This shows the 2nd marriage of Asbury Hill, 31st of May 1843.

I enclose a check for $5.00. Please make two copies of each page. Maybe I'll be able to hang on to these!!

You and MRS. Deanna Smith have been such a help to me in the past. The last time I corresponded with Mrs. Smith she had to pass on my genealogical requests to another researcher becauee of ill health. I do hope she has improved.

Aren't you the one! Proving Joseph was the son of Nathan... and the Winegar history, I'm so glad that you went on and xeroxed the whole book. In the past I have I.L.L. a history from the NEG&H Register (Society) and it didn't help at all. But this fit just right. It seems that I can always findd information on the allied families, always hard to fix the line on my direct ancestors. On the Vanderveers, I had found the cemetery listings in the NYG&B Record, but I didn't have a copy of the Bible page. Good Work!!! The DAR record of John Paul Blood finally cleared up just what the connection to the Stanton family was that they were buried on the Blood famm.

Do keep looking for the Mosher missing link, will you?

I'm enclosing my check for $27.60. Just now seeing the 'plue postage' Since I've already written my check, please tuck on $1.39 to my next bill. O.K.?

I have her will. Census say that she was b. in N.Y. her parents b. in Vt. Her death certificate lists, A. J. Woodard,father; Elizabeth Stanton, Mother.

Dear Vivian,

I think finally, I had quite a successful day working on the Stanton line. Things just seemed to fall into place the whole day for me.

After checking all the D.A.R. records, I finally came up with the enclosed N.S.D.A.R. form which should give you enough proof that Joseph was the son of Nathan. I then decided to do some work on the VanDerveer line and couldn't believe it when I found the VanDerveer family bible. This would probably be an easy name to trace back. Because I couldn't find Jane buried in the Blood Farm Cemetery, I decided to check all my Montgomery County Cemetery records and found her in Greenhill Cemetery listed under Sherburne.

I hope you get as excited as I do. When I find things like this I feel like I'm working on my own line.

I've worked a total of three hours but don't feel you have to send it right away. I know this gets expensive.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Dear Vivian,

I think finally I had quite a successful day working on the Stanton line. Things just seemed to fall into place the whole day for me.

After checking all the U.A.E. records, I finally came up with the produced R.S.P.C.A. form which should give you enough info that Joseph was the son of Martha. I then decided to do some work on the Vandriver line and couldn't believe it when I found the Vandervere family Bible. This would probably be an easy name to trace back, because I couldn't find Jane buried in the Hood Farm Cemetery. I decided to check all my Montgomery County Cemetery records and found her in Crowhill Cemetery listed under Robertus.

Dear Mrs. Szablewski:

I'm so sorry to hear of Deanna's illness. I do appreciate you helping her out.

I've been delayed in answering your letter because I was sidetracked by the Mayflower lineage chairman! So I wish you could do the following for me, if you would.

I need to prove that Stephen Mosher b. ca 1749 in Dutchess Co., N. Y. and died between 1820 & 1824.(I have will..Stephen Mosure written 16 Aug 1820, probated 26 Aug 1824..Will Book 6:125, town of Coeymans in Albany Co., N. Y.) I need proof that Stephen is the son of Hugh Mosher b. ca 1720 Dartmouth, Mass. died 1785/90 in Crum Elbow, Dutchess, N. Y.

We have an excellent library here in Houston, but so far I haven't been able to find proof of this birth. We have the Holland Society Books and many church records for Dutchess Co. but I haven't been able to dig up this birth record or a will of Hugh where he states 'my son, Stephen'. I believe that this has been a stumbling block for many people so our proof is probably going to in some out of the way place. Newspaper obits? Some Dutch Reform Church that hasn't been transcribed Does Coeymans have any newspaper obits where it might list my Stephens' death record and tell about his parents? Also we do not have the Alban Dutch Society Albany Yearbooks....could you please check those??

You say I have a credit of $15.00 to date. I'm willing to see what $25.00 over that will produce. Good Luck!!

Dear Mrs. Clarenbach:

I*m enclosing my check for $22.50. I wish a copy of Descendants of Hugh Mosher and Rebecca Maxson.

It has been a long time since I've seen such a well written and well documented book as this one. I'm on the staff of Clayton Genealogical Library ahere in Houston and I do see a lot of them!

But, from a very selfish point of view, I was simply delighted to find on page 79 my Rev. War ancestor, Nicholas Hill and his third wife, Sarah Mosher!! A patron, Robert Mosher, had told me about having just recently bought this book and was kind enough to bring it to me, here at the Library.

(Please excuse this typewriter!!)

If you are placing these volumes in Libraries, I hope that you will consider putting one in our collection. We serve about 30,000 patrons a year... have a major collection for the U.S.

wait anxiously for my copy to arrive.

Thank kyou again for all the time and effort that I know the two of you must of put into this labor of love.

Dear Mrs. Clarenbach:

About a year ago, I ordered a copy of your Mosher book and it has been a great help to me in my research. I find that I need some more information that I haven't been able to get from the usual sources and I'm wondering if you could help me.

My Mosher connection is on page 79 of your book...Sarah daughter of Stephen...3rd wife of Nicholas Hill. I need proof that Sarah is the daughter of Stephen. I've written to Albany Co., N.Y. for his will using the dates in your book, and they want $40.00 to search for it!!

If you could give me that Book and pages for the will or send me a copy of the will (I'm hoping that he mentions his daughter, of course), maybe that would cut down a little on the price for getting a copy, or I would be glad to pay you for a copy of the will.

Can you help me? This is the one 'missing link' that I need to prove so many lines!!

I enclose a SASE for your reply. Thank you.

Sorry to have delayed in answering your of Jan 23, but a search of our records shows nothing for Hugh Mosher / Maxine Ito. I might suggest you write to the Surrogates Office Putnam County or the State Library Albany N.Y.

Dear Sirs:

I'm interested in the collection of early Dutchess County wills that I'm told you have.

Please advise how I may have a search made to find a will for a Hugh Mosher/Mosier etc. He died about 1765-85 either in Albany Co., N. Y. or Dutchess Co.,N.Y. (probably Crum Elbow,Dutchess Co.)

I'm trying to prove that my Stephen Mosher is the son of this Hugh Mosher.

I enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your convenience.

Thank you.

Dear Mrs. Hickman:

I have seen your query, re Audley/Mosher.

We seem to be of the same line and I hope can help each other.

You seem to be mainly interested in the Audley line, right?

I am more interested, right now, in the Mosher side.

My Sarah Mosher, b 1792 in Albany,NY was a dau/Stephen Mosher b can 1745 in Dutchess Co.,(I think). I need proof that Stephen is the son of Hugh Mosher,Jr. b ca 1720 Mass, who in turn was the son of Hugh b 1690 in Mass, son/ Nicholas and Elizabeth(Audley) Mosher.

Have you seen the Mosher book by Mildren Chamberlain?? It is an excellent account of the Moshers and allied lines...but she too, is stumped on the proof that I seek, namely that Stephen is the son of Hugh,Jr.

I hope that you might have some record that I have overlooked. I will be pleased to exchange any information that I might have on the Audley line.

I look forward to hearing from you. SASE enclosed.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

If you have seen my name in connection with the name, Mosher, it was an error, as I do not have that line, as far as I know.

I do have the Audley line, but have not really worked on it, as I have some more recent lines that need working first.

I am sorry that I am unable to help you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Williams:

I'm taking you up on your kind offer to see if you can find the proofs that I sent in with my rejected first try of using the lineage of George Soule as my Mayflower ancestor.

Wonder of wonders, I still had the papers that were sent back by Mrs. Simmering, way back in 1982. Also enclosed is her letter listing her reasons for said rejection. I would like these records/letters returned, please.

I'm also sending a copy of the letter that Mrs. Laura M.(osher) Clarenback, the co-author with Mildred Chambertin, of the two volumes on the Mosher family sent to me when I wrote asking for her expertise in clearing things up. I would so like clear this Mosher line and find more definitive proof that my Stephen is the son of Hugh Mosher b c1720.

Please look these papers over and see, in the light of what we know now days, if I have a chance of straightening out this line.

I hope your trip back to Amarillo was uneventful. We did enjoy having all of you here in Houston.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Clarenbach:

You have certainly made my YEAR!!

Your open-hearted sharing of your knowledge is heart warming. Your summing up of the preponderence of evidence showing that dear old Steephen can only fit one place is indeed generous. I do thank you.

Just as soon as possible, I shall see to the resubmitting of my claim to George Soule with the hopes that your statement will clear this line. Rest assurred that I shall let you know the thinking of the 'powers that be' at National.

I do appreciate your time and effort. The very nicest people are genealogists, don't you think?

Happiest of Holidays and a Healthy New Year to you and yours.

Most Sincerely,

Publication Announcement

DESCENDANTS OF HUGH MOSHER AND REBECCA MAXSON

Revised Edition

by Mildred (Mosher) Chamberlain and Laura (McGaffey) Clarenbach
(816 pp., indexed, hard cover)

Publication date: December 1, 1990

$39.50 (postpaid in U. S.)

This book, a revision of the 1980 edition, is a record of the descendants of the Hugh Mosher who was born about 1633 and was in Rhode Island by 1660, later living in Portsmouth and Newport, Rhode Island, and in Dartmouth, Massachusetts. He and his wife Rebecca (Maxson) Mosher were probably the progenitors of most of the Moshers living in the United States and Canada. The history again covers seven generations of the family, plus names (and birthdates if known) of children of seventh generation parents, some born as late as 1910.

The revised edition adds 296 families to the 1081 in the 1980 edition. The "Other Mosher Families" section in the 1980 book is omitted, but many of those families are in the main part of the new book. There is also additional information about many of the 1081 families in the 1980 edition.

The section on "Hugh Mosher's Disputed Ancestry" in the 1980 book is replaced by "English Ancestry: the Moger Family of Somersetshire," which includes copies and abstracts of records that provide convincing evidence of the identities of the parents and grandparents of both Hughs. (Neither the 1980 nor the 1990 edition covers the descendants of the Hugh Mosier who settled in Maine.)

Following are some of the comments on the 1980 edition:

"A masterful job." Frederick E. Bauer, Associate Librarian, American Antiquarian Society, Worcester, MA, September 3, 1981.

"It has been a long time since I've seen such a well written and documented book." Vivian Hill Jordan, Clayton Genealogical Library, Houston, TX, February 19, 1981.

"A very well researched genealogy." National Genealogical Society Quarterly, September 1981.

"Best example of a family history I have come across - the family organization and presentation are just great." Joan Kirchman Mitchell, Tuscaloosa, AL, July 19, 1983.

"Became one of my most cherished possessions almost immediately." William V. Mosher, Champaign, IL, September 9, 1980.

"Am filled with admiration for your achievements, especially the clean, faultless presentation." John Mosher, Salzburg, Austria, May 24, 1983.

As it is impossible to reach all descendants of Hugh and Rebecca with this announcement, it would be a favor to the compilers and other descendants if you would "spread the word" about the availability of this revised edition.

About the Compilers

Mildred (Mosher) Chamberlain of Warwick, Rhode Island, has spent 25 years researching the Mosher family, using primary sources in Rhode Island, Maine, Massachusetts, New York, and Nova Scotia, plus secondary records elsewhere, and family records from correspondents. She spent 25 years in the nursing field as a registered nurse specializing in obstetrics, her last five years as a supervisor for Maternal/Child Health in a local hospital. She is a Certified Genealogist specializing in the Rhode Island and southeastern Massachusetts areas; a past editor (6 years) of Rhode Island Roots, a quarterly of the Rhode Island Genealogical Society; Recording Secretary (9 years) of the same society; a Mayflower descendant (R. I. #810); currently Historian of the Society of Mayflower Descendants in the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations. She is a member of the Rhode Island Genealogical Society; Rhode Island Historical Society; New England Historic and Genealogical Society; a charter member of the Nurses Association, American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists; past member of the American Nurses Association and the Rhode Island State Nurses Association. She has had numerous articles published in Rhode Island Roots and The American Genealogist and transcribed the Rhode Island 1777 Military Census, published in 1985.

Laura (McGaffey) Clarenbach of Madison, Wisconsin, has researched the Mosher family for almost 40 years, studying records in many counties in New York, Ohio, Michigan, and scattering counties elsewhere. She lived in Washington, D. C., for some years, making use of the National Archives, the Library of Congress, and the Library of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. In Madison since 1945, she has had the use of the incomparable collection of primary and secondary sources in the Library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin. Innumerable letters from Mosher descendants have contained family records. She was co-compiler of "Joshua^{3} Cooke (Josiah^{2}, Josiah^{1})" in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, April and July 1972; compiler of the section on descendants of Peter Ferdinand Clarenbach in Deutsches Geschlecterbuch, Band 168, published in Germany in 1974. Her articles in the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record are: "The Identity of John Mosher of Albion, New York," July 1980; "The Simons Moger Bible Notes," October 1980; and "Johan Jacob Musier and Early Descendants," January and April 1983. Her "A Schutt-Skutt Lineage" appeared in Seventeen Seventy-Six in 1983. Unpublished compilations include "The Ancestors of Joseph Duell of Warren, Herkimer County, New York," and "Descendants of Neal^{4} McGaffey (Andrew^{3}, John^{2}, Neal^{1}) of White Hall, Illinois." She has compiled five volumes on the ancestors of her grandchildren. She has a master's degree in American history from the University of Kansas and has done further graduate work at Cornell University, the University of Missouri, and the University of Wisconsin. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the State Historical Society of Wisconsin and is a descendant of eleven Mayflower passengers.

I hope that this convinces the powers that be in the Mayflower Society. It convinced me, at least. There is no charge. It was worth the time just to put the evidence together.

To whom it may concern:

This is the evidence that I have found that Stephen Mosher who married Catharina Rauh and made his will in Albany county, New York 16 October 1820 (proved 26 August 1824) was a son of Hugh[4] (Hugh[3], Nicholas[2], Hugh[1] of Rhode Island and Dartmouth, Massachusetts) and his wife Sarah Devol:

1 Stephen married Catharina Rauh, presumably the daughter of Wilhelmus and Anna (Winnegar), who were sponsors at the baptism of their daughter Annatje 27 August 1769 in St. Pauls Lutheran Church, Redhook, Dutchess Co., NY. Stephen and Catharina's children included Wilhelmus, Annatje (Anna), Hugh, and Sarah, the last two being the names of Stephen's presumed parents. Except for Anna, Stephen's children are named in his will (Albany Co. Surrogate Records 6:125).

2 Other early Moshers in Albany Co. came from Dutchess Co. All the taxpayers there except Hugh from 1761 to the time Stephen married can be eliminated as his possible father;
Adley, there 1761-63, went to Hardyston, Sussex Co., N. J., where his estate was administered in 1775.
Benjamin[4] (Philip[3], Joseph[2], Hugh[1]) had a son Stephen, born 22 July 1763 (Dartmouth, MA VR).
Caleb had no son Stephen (Cowsn, Dutchess Co. Wills, 2:18).
Ephraim had a son Stephen born 22 Feb. 1757 (Neb. and Midw. Gen. Record, 15:23-24).
George's children born in Dartmouth, MA, 1742-55, include no Stephen.
Samuel, son of George, was born in Dartmouth 9 Mar. 1742.
Wiliam's children, listed by several descendants, include no Stephen.

3 Two other sons of Hugh[4] Mosher married probable relatives of Stehnen's wife Catharina Rauh: Cornelius married Rosanna Roe, and Christopher married Catharine Rowe.

4 A letter from Grace Polgreen, granddaughter of Hugh[4] Mosher's son Cornelius, contributed several bits of information that seem to link Stephen Mosher to Hugh[4]. Her letters are found in the Clelia Duel Mosher Papers, deposited in the New York State Library in Albany. In one she said that an oath by "Stephen" Mosher was taken in Albany county 22 May 1805 but she wondered if he might have been Cornelius Stephen or vice versa. In another letter she said that Wilhelmus Mosher died suddenly in Coeymans 6 August 1832, leaving a son Hugh. It would appear that she mentioned this because Wilhelmus was a close relative.

To whom it may concern:

This is the evidence that I have found that Stephen Mosher who married Catharina Rauh and made his will in Albany county, New York 16 October 1820 (proved 26 August 1824) was a son of Hugh[4] (Hugh[3], Nicholas[2], Hugh[1] of Rhode Island and Dartmouth, Massachusetts) and his wife Sarah Devol:

1 Stephen married Catharina Rauh, presumably the daughter of Wilhelmus and Anna (Winnegar), who were sponsors at the baptism of their daughter Annatje 27 August 1769 in St. Pauls Lutheran Church, Redhook, Dutchess Co., NY. Stephen and Catharina's children included Wilhelmus, Annatje (Anna), Hugh, and Sarah, the last two being the names of Stephen's presumed parents. Except for Anna, Stephen's children are named in his will (Albany Co. Surrogate Records 6:125).

2 Other early Moshers in Albany Co. came from Dutchess Co. All the taxpayers there except Hugh from 1761 to the time Stephen married can be eliminated as his possible father;
Adley, there 1761-63, went to Hardyston, Sussex Co., N. J., where his estate was administered in 1775.
Benjamin[4] (Philip[3], Joseph[2], Hugh[1]) had a son Stephen, born 22 July 1763 (Dartmouth, MA VR).
Caleb had no son Stephen (Cowsn, Dutchess Co. Wills, 2:18).
Ephraim had a son Stephen born 22 Feb. 1757 (Neb. and Midw. Gen. Record, 15:23-24).
George's children born in Dartmouth, MA, 1742-55, include no Stephen.
Samuel, son of George, was born in Dartmouth 9 Mar. 1742.
Wiliam's children, listed by several descendants, include no Stephen.

3 Two other sons of Hugh[4] Mosher married probable relatives of Stehnen's wife Catharina Rauh: Cornelius married Rosanna Roe, and Christopher married Catharine Rowe.

4 A letter from Grace Polgreen, granddaughter of Hugh[4] Mosher's son Cornelius, contributed several bits of information that seem to link Stephen Mosher to Hugh[4]. Her letters are found in the Clelia Duel Mosher Papers, deposited in the New York State Library in Albany. In one she said that an oath by "Stephen" Mosher was taken in Albany county 22 May 1805 but she wondered if he might have been Cornelius Stephen or vice versa. In another letter she said that Wilhelmus Mosher died suddenly in Coeymans 6 August 1832, leaving a son Hugh. It would appear that she mentioned this because Wilhelmus was a close relative.

Dear MRS. Chamberlaine:

Years ago, when your book on the Mosher Family first came out, I purchased a copy and my ancestors where in the book. Unfortunately, the Mayflower Society,at that time, would not accept my connection to Hugh Mosher b ca 1720 who m Sarah Davol,dau/Christopher Davol.

My Sarah Mosher b 19 Mar 1792 m Nicholas Hill in NY. She was the daughter of Stephen Mosher. In your book, you could not positively state that Stephen was the son of Hugh and Sarah Davol. You did state to my query to you that 'he couln't fit anywhere else'. I agree, but through the years I haven't been able to add to your findings at all.

I'm told that the Registrar for the Mayflower Society has been changed since I submitted my charts, years ago, could you possibly compose a 'preponderence of evidence' document that I could resubmit with my papers? I would of course pay you for your time.

Enclosed is a SASE for your reply. I sincerely hope that you will take on this project, if I can afford it, for this 'weak' spot in this line needs to be cleaned up before I go to meet my Maker!

Sincerely,

I joined the Mayflower Society on anotherhline but this line 'bugs'me.

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

In reply to your letter of the 5th am sorry to tell you that we have not discovered anything further on Stephen Mosher to prove or disprove that he was a son of Hugh and Sarah Davol.

Mr. Eugene A. Stratton was Historian General at the time you submitted your papers and we had some correspondence with him over the situation. He could not find sufficient "preponderance of evidence" to pass on the lineage papers. I personally know Gene and respect his opinions, and I do not think the current or any future Historian will approve the papers as it now stands.

Mrs. Clarenbach has gone into this situation as thoroughly as records permit. However, if you think someone else could solve the problem I could give you the name of an excellent Certified Genealogist in the area. Her name is Mrs. Philip Bradway (Bette), 1119 Hedgewood Lane, Schenectady NY 12309. Bette, by the way, is State Historian for Mayflower in NY. I will let her know what the situation is, what Gene thought, etc. so if you contact her she will be aware of the problem. However, do not feel that you have to contact her; Bette and I are in touch and help each other when we can as I am State Historian for Rhode Island.

Hope this has been of some help to you.

Sincerely,

Mildred

Dear Ken:

Thank you ofor your prompt answer to my query on the Mosher family problem that I have.

In your remarks on the back of my letter...computer out, a/c out....heat getting to you. Hope that has been taken care of by now.

You are correct, you did not read my letter correctly.... My Stephen is merely placed in the line of children of Hugh ,Jr because that was were he had to fit....quote Mildred Chamberlain, un quote. She couldn't find out any more on Stephen either, as I said in my letter.

I believe I caught your address on a Bulletin Board or something, and I try to follow through on any Mosher researcher.

You need,it appears, a good commercial map. There is a Florida, in Montgomery County, NY. and a Bethleham in Albany Co.,NY.

You did get a little twisted when you say that the Chamberlain book showed my Stephen etc. So many Stephens, and Nicholas Hills running around, so confusing. Jordan is my married name, so my blood line is through the Hill/Mosher connection, which is not carried through in the Chamberlain book.

These Moshers are interesting, aren't they? Keep on searching and perhaps we will find our ancesters!

Thanks again for answering my query.

Sincerely,

Your name has been given as working on the Mosher line. I,too, have the Moshers in my family. I wonder if we are of th e same line or perhaps could exchange some information?

Fonda?

My Sarah Mosher b 1792 in Bethleham,NY m probably in Florida,Montg, NY to my Rev. Nicholas Hill, Rev. Drummer boy. I have proven that she is the daughter of Stephen Mosher b ca 1749 probably in Dutchess Co., NY. He married Catherine Rauh(Rowe)and I have a bit on the Roe/Rauh/Rowe family.

What I cannot prove, and neither could Mildred Chamberlain in her marvelous book on the Moshers, is that my Stephen is the son of Hugh (jr) and Sarah Davol.

This has really been a hangup for me and I have just recently started to work again, on this family. Putting in querys etc.

If you are of this line, misery loves company you know, do let me hear from you. I may have some clues for you and your family.

Dear Vivian –

My computer printer is out of whack so you'll have to try to decipher my handwriting. (It is also 90°/75% humidity – and I have no A/C – so I'm dripping!)

① There is no Florida in Montgomery Co. NY (Florida is in Orange Co. – maybe Fonda? FONDA?)

② I can find no Bethlehem in NY altho there is a S. Bethlehem in Albany Co not far from Coeymans.

③ Maybe I am not reading your letter correctly – ~~by~~ but my Mosher Book by Mildred Chamberlain outlines your Moshers in detail. (see #7 (p. 9), #28 (p. 27) #95 (p. 78/79) which includes your Sarah who m. Nicholas Hill and even gives the location of her grave – but lists only one child for her (who died young.)

If you don't have access to this book I can copy the above for you. My line is from #29 (a brother to your #28)

Dear Mary:

It is so nice to get in touch with another Mosher researcher!

I haven't really worked on Moshers for some time, but I work in Clayton Genealogical Library here in Houston, and everytime we get a New York book of any description, I always check real quick to see if anyone has worked on my names....you know how it is.

I'm really interested in getting copies of your Mosher Fortune!! literature. I have seen some pieces years ago, but didn't copy it, but as you say, it is rather a fun thing to have. The charts you mentioned, I do not think I've seen. Would it be too much of a bother to xerox these things, Iwill reinburse you any expense.

Years ago, when I wrote Mildred Chamberlain to see if she could help, she wrote that this was all she had ever been able to find but that anyone that worked on Stephen Mosher couldn't possibly fit him into a space anywhere else!! Not being able to prove this link between my Sarah's father, Stephen being the son of Hugh,Jr. messes up several Mayflower lines that I would like to use as supplementals.

As to the Audleys....that is another 'brick wall'...proving that the sisters Elizabeth and Hannah were sisters....what Mildred meant about 'circumstantial evidence' I would sure write her about it.I have both these girls in my line....Hannah that marries Johathon Davol and Elizabeth. I also have two Sarah Davols...one born 1688 who married Hugh Mosher,Sr. and another who married Hugh,JR.

Why or Why couldn't they have married differently? Poor dears, they didn't have anyone else in those small communities, did they?

In going through my notes.....The American Genealogist v39 #1 Jan 1963....article about Corrections and Additions to Austin's RI Dictionary...John[2] m 2nd to Elizabeth b 19 May 1684 dau/Josiah and Sarah(Mills) Arnold of Jamestown,RI. Do these dates jibe???

All I could find. Do let me know if the above helps. If you aren't whereTAG is available, I'll be pleased to xerox it for you.

Dear Peg:

I have seen your query in Family Register, I think it was, and we are of the same line of Mohher.

Have you seen Mildred Chamberlin's book on the Mosher Family? She has done a beautiful job but as it happens so often, the generation that I was interested in proving, she has troubles there also!!

I come into the Mosher family through Sarah Mosher b 1792 in Albany,NY. She married Nicholas Hill of Montgomery Co.,NY. Her father was Stephen b ca 1745 in Dutchess Co.,I think. Stephen married Catherine Rauh/Rowe of Dutchess Co.NY.

My problem is proving that Hugh Mosher, Jr. b ca 1720 Bristol, Mass and Sarah Davol (dau/Christopher Davol) were the parents of my Stephen.

Hugh,Jr. of course, is the son of Hugh b 1690 Mass. who in turn was the son of Nicholas and Elizabeth (Audley)Mosher.

I would be so pleased to exchange information with you. Do you have anything in your research that could help me prove this connection??

I eagerly await your letter. SASE enclosed.

Dear Vivian:

My apologies for not replying sooner to your May inquiery. It's for lack of time, not interest. Also, please excuse the long-hand and the paper. I hate to type and I'd like to get this into the mail on my way out this afternoon — or at least get a good start.

I've had little time for ancestors in the past year or two and have had to get my thoughts back to the Mosher family. Yes, I've had a copy of the Chamberlain book since shortly after it was published.

My line back begins with Rebecca Mosher who m Phineas Chase (xii near top of p 12 of Chamberlain). She was the daughter of Nicholas[3] Mosher (Nicholas[2], Hugh[1]). They were m in 1756 in NY. (now Dutchess or Washington Co., probably), not long after the birth of your Stephen. With their marriage I pretty much dropped the Mosher trail and have nothing to throw any light on your Stephen.

I do have some fun things of which you might like copies if you don't have them. I'll be happy to send them if you would like. One is a letter recounting progress in the search for the elusive Mosher fortune. The others are two intriguing old tree charts drawn about the same time. I had them out shortly after getting your letter but my efforts were interrupted and I must have filed them back in some strange place. Oh — I also have a copy of the article in "History of Muscatine County, Iowa" to which the Chamberlain book refers on p.x. My Chase descendants moved into Ohio and from there to Iowa with the Moshers (a distant line) who were the parents of the article's author.

Chamberlain (pp 27-28 and 79-80) doesn't seem to have question about Hugh Mosher[4] and Sarah Daval being the parents of your Stephen who m Catherine Rauh (Rowe). However, from her reference listings one can't pinpoint for a specific event. Have you had access to any of those refs, especially the Fernow "Calendar of Wills" If you don't have access to it I'll check for you as soon as I can, but it won't be 'til late July or early August. What have you had access to for Dutchess Co births - for Stephen? If I can find anything else here I'll be glad to check. I presume he was a birthright Quaker until sometime close to his m.

I'm having the same problem with Nicholas[2] Mosher's m to Elizabeth Audley (p4), you don't mention that and I'm wondering if it's because your thoughts were geared to your Stephen or if you have something more on Nicholas and Elizabeth. From the first sentence on that page I'm not sure what it is that is "according to circumstantial evidence" — that Hugh's wife was Elizabeth Audley or that the Elizabeth Audley he m was the daughter of John Odlin/Audley and his wife Martha. And what is the evidence?

Neither Hugh's will, nor anything else I've found gives Elizabeth's MSN — Austin Torrey, an article in the July and Oct 1984 issues of the Nebraska and Midwest Genealogical Record, I've not exhausted sources probably - but. I've long meant to write Mrs. Chamberlain with this question. If you have anything which proves Hugh's wife was this Elizabeth Audley - or - I'll appreciate your sharing it.

Sincerely,

Peg

Dear Vivian Jordan;

In response to your query in The Dutchess concerning Hill, Mosher, Rauh/Rowe I am sending three Xerxed pages from The Descendants of Hugh Mosher and Rebecca Maxson through Seven Generations. compiled by Mildred Chamberlain and Laura Clarenbach.

You may already have this information and it may not have the proof you seek but at least it shows that these two compilers credit Stephen Mosha as the son of Hugh[4] Mosher ca 1720.

If I can be of any further assistance don't hesitate to ask -

Dear Mr. Badgley:

Thank you so much for taking the time to copy the pages from Mildred Chamberlain's book on the Moshers.

You are right, I do have the book and of course, have seen how she handled my Stephen. Mrs. Chambertain has said herself, that anyone that has ever worked on the Mosher line knows that that is the only place that he would fit....it is just one of those frustrating things that you can't find a document that will say so in no unsertain terms!

A number of years ago, I first tried to join the Mayflower Soc. using my Mosher line that connected with George Soule of the Mayflower. But they rejected me with this one 'weak' link, of proving that my Stephen Mosher was the son of Hugh. The Mosher book had not been out too long at that time. I'm thinking of resubmitting that line again to see what will happen!!

From time to time, I put out a query, hoping that someone has that tittle family record, that no one else has, that will make a definite statement.

Again, my thanks to you for your thoughtfulness. Please accept the stamps and keep up the good work.

Most sincerely,

Dear Mr. Bradley

Thank you so much for taking the time to accept the award from Mildred Chamberlain's book on tea leaves.

You are right, I do have the book and of course, nevertheless she handled my stephen. This, Christopher has said, is the only place that he would fit.... It just one of those frustrating things that you don't find a shortage that will any so in no possible sense!

A number of years ago, I also tried to join the Navy. Nothing my Scalar like that compared with Secret Service Navflower. But they rejected me with those one "weak link" covering that my Stephen Hawker was the son of Hugh. The other book had not too too long at that time. I'm [illegible] or complaining that time again to see what will become.

From time to time, I put out a cover. Maybe that would be that little family record, that no one else has, that will make a definite statement.

Again, my thanks to you for your thoughtfulness. Please accept the stamp and keep up the good work.

Yes, I have Mildred's book on the Moshers. She has done a beautiful job and as she said herself, 'if anyone had worked with the Moshers as much as I have, they would know that your Stephen wouldn't fit anyplace else!!'.

But, being a perfectionist, I still keep trying, periodically, to find someone that might have that little scrap of paper that says that my Stephen is the son of Hugh Mosher cal720. Mrs. Chamberlain put Stepen in her book as the son of Hugh but if you read closely, she really doesn't state or give a reference where the statement is documented.

Again my thanks for taking the time to answer. If you ever run across anyone else with my line, please give them my address!

Dear Ms. Jordan,

Noticed your query in the Fall 1987 Volume 15, #1 of The Dutchess regarding Mosher.

I have Moshers on my New England family tree and have a Hugh Mosher born 17 March 1722 as the son of Daniel & Elizabeth Edward (Phelps). Daniel was the son of Reverend Hugh who was the son of Ensign Hugh.

Have you gone through the book "Descendants of Hugh Mosher & Rebecca Maxson - through 7 Generations", by Mildred Mosher Chamberlain & Laura McGaffey Clarenbach? That is where I got the information for my line.

Another person you might contact re upstate New York Mosher lines would be Mrs. Jean Robison, 403 North Buckeye, Coffeyville, Kansas 67337.

Hope this will be of some help. Good luck.

Dear Elizabeth:

I do contend that you 'meet' though correspondence, usually, the niciest people. Genealogists are at the very top.

Thank you so much for taking the time to answer my query. My Moshers' are quite a trial to me. I, too, have Chamberlain's book. and I've corresponded with her. She can not help me with all the work that she has done on this family. She has placed my Stephen where he fits, so to speak, he doesn't fit any place else, but this is not acceptable to the various societies, nor really to me. I just keep hoping that, some where, there is this old Bible, or journal or letter that will say, that my Stephen is the son of Hugh.

Again my thanks for your thoughtfulness. I'm enclosing some stamps to help cover your expense of mailing.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Jordan,

I finally got around to filing some back copies of genealogical magazines and saw your query in the Fall '87 issue of "The Dutchess." Perhaps by now you have your Mosher problem solved. My husband's mother was Helen (Mosher) Edmunds and I have a copy of the book by Chamberlain and Clarenbach.

If you want photocopies of any of the rest of it, I can copy at 15¢ per page. Mildred (Mosher) Chamberlain and I have corresponded on and off for several years. I believe she is still very active.

All the Moshers I ever knew were wonderful people. I came into the family before Cyril's Grandfather Mosher died and I just loved him. My mother-in-law was a great lady.

This has not been my best year. A mastectomy in Nov. '86 left me with massive arthritis, apparently touched off by the surgery. Anyhow, I never knew I had it until then. I was in therapy for months for that. Then it was discovered that I had bone cancer and have just finished a series of radiation treatments for that. I am so grateful for the wonderful support I have had from doctors, family and friends--but especially to my friend and partner of nearly 48 years. Right now I'm feeling pretty well, but things certainly have piled up on my desk! Getting back to genealogy is therapy for me!

Good luck with your future research. Don't hesitate to call on me for any help that I might be able to provide. I have worked out the allied lines on my husband's Mosher ancestry (from published sources, not original research) and some of these lines might be ones in which you are interested.

Sincerely,
Elizabeth Edmunds

Dear Mr. Lee:

I, too, am interested in the MOSHER family. Perhaps we could exchange information and help each other??

My line is through Nicholas who d 14 Aug 1747 Tiverton, RI whose wife was Elizabeth Augley.

His son Hugh b 1690 MA m Sarah Davol

Hugh's son, Hugh,jr b ca 1720 m Sarah Davol (dau of Christopher Davol, nephew to the 1690 Hugh's wife, Sarah)

You have probably seen Mildred Chamberlain's excellent book on the Mosher Family. But even she can only 'assume' about the fact that my Stephen b ca 1749(with wife Catherine Rauh(Rowe)is the son of Hugh,Jr. and Sarah Davol. Do you have any records that would help me prove the generation link between father Hugh and son Stephen??

I've always believed that somewhere, a family had some private records that would clear up this problem.

I anxiously wait for your reply to this. A SASE is enclosed.

I',m enclosing my check for membership in the Montgomery Co. Historical Society.

Please tell Mrs. Fallone that the matter is all cleared up.

I do appreciate your checking your sources again. Maybe some day I'll clear up this Mosher line of mine.

Still hope to one day get up into Montgomery County and see where my ancestors used to live.

Dear Vivian,

Your query addressed to the Dept. of History and Archives was given to me to assist with as we are back-logged.

The records at the Dept. of History and Archives have been thoroughly searched and I do not know what more I could do for you from this standpoint. You mentioned that someone in Albany has done some research for you there. Would this be Joan Szablewski? She is an excellent research and works full-time at State Library.I don't think anyone knows the records there better than she. In case you have not used her talents I include her name and address:

Mrs. Joan Szablewski
88 Skyway Dr.
Scotia,N.Y.

I recommend her highly.

No,we do not have Arnolds here.I certainly wish we did. I am not sure if it is at State Library or not.It seems I did inquire about his myself about a year ago.Ask Joan.No,I have not heard about the "Mosher Centennial Committee".I'm sorry to sound so negative today!

Mrs. Szablewski is a member of the Montg.Co. Heritage and Gen. Soc. Should you decide to contact her,please make a check in am't of $5.00 for the membership to the Heritage and Gen. Soc. It must be kept separate from any research fees and these are two different agencies.

Note,that I have resumed my maiden name.I have no problem writing it,but still tell people that I am Deanna Smith.I'll get used to it after awhile.I do wish I could assist from this end,but we have not added any further records for Dutchess Co. and all were searched previously.I feel that contacting Joan is most beneficial for you. Good luck.

Deanna

Dear Violet:

I'm writing to see if something happened to my letter of 5 May 1983. In it I enclosed a check #841 for $10.00.

I wished to become a member of the Montgomery Heritage & Genealogical Society. In your last letter, about a year ago you had said that the charge was $5.00 and 'our fees are stated in the enclosed brochure'. There was no brochure!

I am anxious to prove that my Stephen Mosher b ca 1749 Dutchess,N.Y. is the son of Hugh(Jr.) and Sarah Davol Mosher.

My main concern right now is that my check has not been cashed.

Please advise.

Sincerely,

Vivian J.

Dear Vivian,

Your name does sound familiar to me, but I work on searches for people all over the country, and cannot remember them all specifically. I have no record of receiving the check, nor does the treasurer of our "heritage" society; I just called her. I am neglectful in not enclosing the brochure, which I am doing not- I am so very sorry. We have lost better than half our staff, so it is rough remembering all I have to, but I woul d have recorded the check or sent it back to you, as we bill on completion of the search only. Please let me know if you find the check. I can only think that maybe I turned over your letter to someone in the "society", but you should have received an answer by now. Let me know..... I will check with the three members that I may have turned your search over to.

Very sincerely,

Dear Violet:

It seems that I turn up about once a year asking you for help. And you have always come through! I'm sure counting on you this time.

I'm floundering with my Mosher line. Can't seem to find that one little piece of proof that says...'Stephen Mosher b ca 1749 Dutchess Co.? N.Y. is the son of Hugh Mosher b ca 1720, Dartmouth, Mass.

Lots of Hughs and lots of Stephens. I've checked all the obvious. Had a lady in Albany checking for me to no avail. There is a fairly new book on the Moshers by Mrs. Chamberlain. She cannot find the proof. I'm just hoping that perhaps you might have some obscure record that would clear this up for me.

Circumstantial evidence says that Stephen is the son of Hugh and Sarah (Davol) Mosher. Hugh & Crum Elbow, Dutchess Co. between 1785-1790.. He and Sarah (Davol) mention son Stephen b 1747 i They were married 13 Mar 1745/6 Tiverton, R. I. so I guess that Christopher was born in R. I. and I'm wondering perhaps my Stephen was also.

Do you happen to have Arnold"s Vital Records of R. I.? Our library is missing v. 4 and 6. We have through v.21 with those two exceptions. If you do, please check for birth of my Stephen.

I also came up on a statement that said 'Mosher Centennial Committee has supplement to Family Records of Stephen Mosher' Have you ever heard of this committee? Don't know WHICH Stephen they are talking about, but I would like to find this.

I'm enclosing my check for $10.00. Half for membership in the Montgomery Co. Heritage & Gen. Soc. and half for any xeroxing or charges that you have. In your last letter you told me the cost of membership and said 'our fees are stated in the enclosed brochure- No brochure enclosed!! So glad that other people do that too.

Most sincerely,

Dear Vivian,

I have received your request for research to be done on Francis Asbury HILL and Enders Stanton HILL. Also received is your advance check for $40.00.

I will proceed immediately with the searching of records in the county that apply to the above individuals. I have ordered the 1865 State Census for McHenry County, from the State Library in Springfield. It will probably take several weeks to receive it through interlibrary loan.

Wasn't it considerate of your ancestor to have an unusual given name like Enders to go with his HILL surname? My HILL ancestor, I think was Samuel who probably died in Greene Co., IL ca 1838. Can't find marriage record in Greene or nearby IL & MO counties. Must get back down there to search court records from one end to the other and see if I can't confirm my speculation about Samuel. (LDS has filmed Greene Co, but it's not available yet.) (And besides, I know LDS doesn't always get all the available records.)

You will hear from me again in a few weeks.

Sincerely,

Phyllis

Dear Phyllis:

Thank you for answering my query.

I enclose some extra census sheets on my Hill family that were in Harvard, McHenry, Ill. ca 1865. I'm really just trying to add a few facts to their stay in Ill.

Family lore states that they lived 'outside' Harvard and raised horses. The cousin who told me this is not too reliable with her 'facts'. They probably were good old farmers etc.

I'm particularly interested in finding out why they went to Harvard from Florida, Montgomery Co., N.Y. If theee are other Hill names in Harvard, please note bhem.....perhaps one of your county histories that you mentioned would give a Hill family listing.

If, indeed, they did own a farm perhaps you can locate it for me on a map. If not then the selling and buying of land will suffice. Tax records will pin point exactly when they came and when they left.

I enclose my check for $40.00.

MCHENRY COUNTY ILLINOIS
RECORD SEARCHING

Thank you for your request inquiring about research in McHenry County.

My research fee is $8.00 per hour, 20¢per mile and cost of any photo-copies and certifications.

The usual records searched are: Wills and Probate; Marriage, Deeds and Census. Birth and Death records start in 1877 but are not complete until after 1916. Also available are Tax Lists and old newspapers on microfilm, as well as less frequently used sources.

I have access to a few of the old church records and most of the cemetery records in the county. If desired, I can take pictures of available tomb-stones with my 35 mm camera. Colored pictures are 50¢ each, and black and white are cost of film and development, as I don't normally have black and white film in my camera.

In addition to the above named record sources, there is published material such as county history books for 1877, 1885, 1903, 1922 and 1968. Atlas-plat map books for 1872, 1895 and 1908.

The client receives photocopies of appropriate pages from the records, whenever this is possible. Also, a report of all records searched and a recommendation for further procedure. The average search is 5 to 10 hrs. depending on the client's wishes --- whether they want a general search of all applicable records or requests one or two specific records. I am famil-iar with the use of all the above record sources and try to perform my re-search for others with the same care and concern that I have for my own personal research.

If you wish me to undertake your record search needs, please send a fam-ily group sheet for each family in question, pedigree chart and brief outline of your specific questions. Also, any clues you may have about the family's stay in McHenry county. If you do not have group sheets and chart forms available, please be clear and concise as to your record search needs. If you have already searched some of the records such as census, please send me copies of your findings so I will not duplicate your efforts.

I look forward to hearing from you again and to be of help with your research.

Sincerely,

Phyllis

Moser

THE Moser family, of which John Moser, of the borough of Brooklyn, was a member, were essentially of Teutonic origin, and for a number of generations, branches of the family resided along the east and western slopes of the valley of the river Rhine.

(I) The first ancestor of whom we have any definite knowledge was a native of Ober-Enheim (German), Obernai (French), a town in the district of Alsace, fifteen miles southwest of Strassburg, where he was born about 1780, while the southern part of Alsace was included in "the remainder of Alsace annexed to France in 1791," and again ceded to Germany as the result of the Franco-German war in 1871. The elder Moser was a farmer and vinegrower, and living as he did in the beautiful valley of the Ill, and near the foot of Hoerfeld Mountain, 3,741 feet in height, he was removed from the confusion of town life and lived the simple peasant life, where the husbandman found reward in the abundant fruits of the soil and in the healthgiving atmosphere that was engendered by the diversity of surface of the land on which he built his home, which protected his numerous family from both intense heat and inclement cold. He enjoyed the very conditions that inspired the poet when he sang of the contentment of the yeomanry of Alsace, and described the beauty of the scenes amid which they lived. From this household, that tradition represents as of superior intelligence, possessed of well defined German traits, claiming Germany as their Fatherland even when living under French rule, and with German instincts and customs inbred and ineradicable, Eligius Moser, the first named of this family, lived as boy and man. The Christian name of the father and mother or data as to the time of their birth and death, or of the existence of any children other than Eligius, is not of available record, owing possibly to the carelessness of Eligius Moser in not bringing with him the family Bible, or any written family record, of either the Moser family or of the Lambert family into which he married.

(II) Eligius Moser, the first of the family in America, a native of the village of Ober-Enheim in Alsace, a former government district of eastern France and forming after the Revolution the department of Hout-Rhin and Bas-Rhin, and now part of the German Empire, was born about 1811. He followed the occupation of his father, and became a thrifty and respected farmer and vinegrower. When the Revolution of 1848 disturbed the work of the husbandman and made him anxious as to the safety of his family, the war having already devastated his home, he took his wife and five children, the youngest an infant, and sought refuge and a new home in free America, arriving in the United States about 1850. The spirit of independence that the nature of his vocation intensified and the interests of a growing family emphasized, made him uneasy and anxious to avoid evils that seemed almost ready to spring upon him. He had the history and tradition of his forefathers who had felt the heavy hand of war devastating their farms, call the young men to battle, and leave the children and their mothers to suffer untold privations, to magnify the worst woes he might picture for his own children, and he determined to remove them from danger and seek in the United States of America a home and a chance for his sons to develop the gifts that a well established heredity had planted in them. He settled in New York City, where he was sure the education of his children would not be hindered as it might be if they were settled on a farm in the country, and where church privileges would be insured, and the mental, moral, and spiritual needs of himself, his dutiful wife, and their five children, would be equally ministered to.

Died in New York City, in 1876, leaving only his widow and eldest son, his other two sons and two daughters having died from infectious tuberculosis, in Williamsburg, Brooklyn, New York, just after they had attained manhood and womanhood, and before they had married.

Married, in Ober-Enheim, Alsace, about 1840, Clara Lambert, who with her son, John M. Moser, survived him. She died in New York City at the close of the nineteenth century, the date not known. Issue of Eligius and Clara (Lambert) Moser:

1. John M. Moser, born December 1, 1841, of whom forward.
2. Philip Moser, born about 1843; died about 1873.
3. Henry Moser, born about 1845; died about 1873.
4. Mary Moser, born about 1847; died about 1875.
5. Antoinette Moser, born about 1849; died about 1875.

(III) John M. Moser, president of the Frank Brewing Company of Evergreen, borough of Brooklyn, Long Island, New York City, was born in the village of Ober-Enheim, in Alsace, France, December 1, 1841, son of Eligius and Clara (Lambert) Moser, and came to the United States about 1850, with his parents, brothers and sisters. He received his educational training in the public schools of New York City, and learned the principles and practice of actual business at Dolbear's Commercial College, at that time located at the corner of Houston street and Broadway. This preparation enabled him to obtain an immediate position as clerk and bookkeeper in a mercantile house, which, with a practice of frugality and industry, enabled him not only to support himself in comfort, but also to contribute to the support of the family, and in that way repay in a measure the expenses that had devolved upon his father in paying his tuition at the commercial college, and his maintenance during his school days. His experience as an employee enabled him to become thoroughly conversant with the trade in hops. In 1876 he began the business of buying and selling hops on his own account, with good results, and this brought him into close business relations with the brewers of the city and vicinity. In this way he engaged in the manufacture and sale of malt, and as a maltster he met with equal success, and this business led to the formation of the Frank Brewing Company, of which he held the controlling interest from 1892, and he was elected president of the corporation, which position he held up to the time of his death.

He was elected to membership in the New York Produce Exchange, and became a director of the Broadway Bank and of the German Savings Bank in the Eastern District of Brooklyn. He was a leader in the civic and commercial life of Brooklyn, and one of the most progressive of the enterprising men who built up the commercial supremacy of the city. His fraternal affiliations included membership with the Free and Accepted Masons, and in the Brooklyn Arion Singing Society of Williamsburg. His social affiliations were with the Hanover and Brooklyn clubs of Brooklyn. He was a member of the board of directors of the Brooklyn Academy of Music, and of the Evangelical Lutheran Church. Died July 26, 1911.

Married (first) in 1866, Teresa Foertsch, daughter of Doctor Jacob Foertsch, who was for many years a practicing physician of New York City, where he had a large clientele and was widely known in his profession. Teresa (Foertsch) Moser died at her home in the Eastern District of Brooklyn, in 1875. Like her husband, she was of the Lutheran faith, and was widely known throughout the community wherein she resided, for her many acts of kindness and charity among those less fortunate than herself.

Issue of John M. and Teresa (Foertsch) Moser:

1. Jacob, deceased.
2. William, born August 2, 1868, of whom forward.
3. Clara, born July 20, 1873. She was educated in the public schools of Williamsburg, Eastern District of Brooklyn, and was there reared to years of womanhood under the parental roof. She married, September 18, 1889, Henry Gottlieb Friedmann, born September 1, 1864, son of Christian George and Barbara Friedmann. Issue:
   i. John Friedmann, born April 20, 1891.
   ii. Christian George Friedmann, born January 3, 1894.
   iii. Clara Ottillie Friedmann, born October 17, 1898. She attended the public schools of the Borough of Brooklyn, and at present (1915) is a student in Pratt Institute, borough of Brooklyn.

   The three aforementioned children are of the fourth generation in collateral line of descent from the first ancestor of the Moser family referred to, who lived in the town of Ober-Enheim, in what is now the Province of Alsace, Germany.
4. Ottillie.

Married (second) February 16, 1890, Ottillie Schledorn, born February 3, 1865, at the family home in New York City, daughter of Emil and Henrietta (Deutz) Schledorn, both of whom were natives of Wesel, Germany. Her father, Emil Schledorn, was a noted artist and expert lithographer.

Issue of John M. and Ottillie (Schledorn) Moser:

1. Frederick Augustus, born August 1, 1891, died December 8, 1903.
2. Henry Gottlieb, born September 7, 1904.
3. Elsie Marie, born January 30, 1906.

(IV) William Moser, second son of John M. and Teresa (Foertsch) Moser, was born in New York City, August 2, 1868. He received his educational training in the public schools of his native city and in Packard's Business College. He then took up the study of medicine, and was graduated in the Medical Department of the New York University, with the degree of Doctor of Medicine, in 1888, and he pursued graduate studies in Germany, in the universities of Heidelberg and Berlin. From the latter university he received the degree of Doctor of Medicine, in 1892. He practiced his pro-

MOHAWK VALLEY HOUSEHOLDERS IN 1800.

CONTRIBUTED BY L. D. SCISCO.

The following transcript from the original census returns for the county of Montgomery in 1800 shows the names of the householders of Palatine town in that year and makes possible a comparison with the published census of the town for 1790. In both 1790 and 1800 the county of Montgomery embraced the present Fulton County, while the town of Palatine included the present towns of Palatine and St. Johnsville in Montgomery County as well as Ephrata, Oppenheim, Stratford, and the western part of Caroga in Fulton County. At the census of 1790 the town of Palatine had included also the present towns of Manheim and Salisbury in Herkimer County, but this area had been set off prior to the 1800 census. The census records are now held in the Bureau of Census at Washington, D. C.

THE FIRST STANFORD (BAPTIST) CHURCH AT BANGALL, DUTCHESS CO., NEW YORK.

Early Marriage Records, and Abstracts of Tombstone Inscriptions.*

Contributed by Evelyn Briggs Baldwin.

The earliest records of this Church are dated from Great Nine Partners, Charlotte Precinct, N. Y. Its first members appear to have emigrated from Massachusetts, and were organized into a Church, Oct. 15, 1759, in Dutchess County, by covenanting together and appointing Ephraim Bullock and Comer Bullock to preach the gospel and administer the ordinances among them. At this meeting the members had the assistance of Elder Jabez Wood and Elder Robert Wheaton, who were elders of the First Baptist Church in the town of Swansea, Mass.

For nearly twenty years harmony prevailed in the church, but in 1778 dissension arose concerning the singing of Watt's Psalms, which the parent church of Swansea, Mass., had lately introduced into its order of worship, and on May 9, 1778, twenty-four of the members separated from the others and formed another church under the leadership of Elder Comer Bullock. It is to this new organization that the following history and records properly belong.

Elder Comer Bullock continued to be the pastor of the church until 1804. It is not recorded that he ever received a penny as a salary. He did, indeed, on one occasion receive a contribution, and for so doing was called "an hireling," whereupon the church promptly voted that he had a perfect right to receive any contribution the people were disposed to make him. During his ministry several branches were established, some of which afterward developed into independent Baptist churches, viz.: Kinderhook, Oswago, Noble, Dover, West Branch, South-West Branch and Rhinebeck.

In 1806, Elder Luman Burch was ordained pastor of the church, and at the same time, Comer, the son of Elder Comer Bullock, was ordained Deacon. During his ministry a parsonage was built and a new house of worship erected. Besides caring for the Bangall church, Elder Burch ministered to the needs of other places, as Amenia, Fishkill, Pleasant Valley and Pine Plains. At the latter place a church was organized in 1839. Elder Burch closed his labors as pastor in 1855, having been stricken with palsy. He lingered a sufferer until Nov. 17, 1858, when he died, aged eighty-one years. Thus for nearly a century this church was served by two pastors only.

In 1855 Elder Elijah Lucas accepted a call to the church and in September, entered upon his pastorate. He was succeeded by Elder John Vassar, who was soon followed by Elder J. Holmans.

* Originals deposited with the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society. Records transcribed by Evelyn Briggs Baldwin.

VOL. XXXVII #3

In 1865 the latter tendered his resignation and the following year Elder E. C. Ambler became pastor of the church. In 1867 a survey was made for the Dutchess and Columbia Railroad. This passed through the church building which had to be removed to give passage to the railroad. Damages were awarded and the present house of worship was then erected about a quarter of a mile south of the other at a cost of $12,000.

INTRODUCTION.

THE first will recorded in Suffolk County is that of Josiah Stanborough, who lived at Sagaponack, in the town of Southampton. It was dated July 16, 1661, and proved at the "Quarter Court," held in Southampton, September 3, 1661. At that time the town was under the jurisdiction of Connecticut, and the probate was according to the laws of that Colony. It may be found in the second volume of Southampton records.

In 1664 the English conquest made Long Island a part of the Province of New York, and it was governed by the code known as the "Duke's Laws." By these laws it was ordered that, upon the death of any person, it was the duty of the constable and the overseers to repair to the house of the deceased and find if any will had been left by him. The executors of any will were to present it for probate at the next "Court of Sessions," and the Clerk of the Court was to transmit the will and probate for record to the Register's office in New York. By an amendment to these laws, the Court of Assizes also had the power to admit wills to probate. The Court of Sessions consisted of the Judge and Clerk, and certain Justices of the Peace. It was ordained by law to be held three times a year, and in the "East Riding" (now Suffolk County) the courts were to be held "by turns" in Southold and Southampton.

The Court of Assizes was composed of the Governor, Members of Council, High Sheriff, and such Justices of the Peace as might attend. The Secretary of the Province was the Clerk of the Court, which was that of last appeal. This Court was abolished in 1683.

By an addition to the Duke's Laws, in 1665, it was ordered that all original wills, after having been proved at the Court of Sessions, or Assizes, should be returned into the office of Records in New York, "and shall remain there," and the executors were to have copies. This has preserved a great many original wills, which are now on file in the New York Surrogate's office.

In England, up to a very recent period, the probate of wills was under the control of the Archbishop of Canterbury.* And in the instructions given to General Thomas Dongan, May 29, 1686, it was expressly charged that "the ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury is to be retained except as to licences for marriage and Probate of Wills, which are reserved to the Governor, and to the Commander in Chiefe for the time being."

*The origin of the name of "Prerogative Court" is shown by the following definition in Baily's Dictionary, 1750. "Prerogative Court. A Court belonging to the Archbishop of Canterbury, wherein all Wills are proved and Administrations granted, that belong to the Archbishop by his Prerogative."

By Act of General Assembly, November 11, 1692, was enacted that in all the counties except Orange, Richmond, Westchester, and Kings, the Court of Common Pleas, or if not in session, the Judge assisted by the Justices of the Peace, was to examine the witnesses and certify the examinations, to the Secretary's Office, and upon this the Governor granted his "Probate." Among the list of officers 1693, we find "William Smith, Esq., Chief Justice, having power of King's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchecquer." So that although the power to admit wills to probate was vested in the Governor, yet the actual power was exercised by the Judge of the Court, who acted as his delegate, and Governor Tryon, in 1774, stated "The Prerogative Court confines itself only in the Probate of wills, etc. The Governor is properly the Judge of this Court but usually acts by delegate." Judge William Smith was appointed Judge in May 15, 1691, and held it until June 13, 1706.

It remains to state the circumstances under which this book was lost and restored. Up to 1844 the County Clerk's office was wherever the clerk happened to live. Thomas Helme was clerk in 1691, and for many years after. William Henry Smith, the son of the Judge, held the office from 1730 to 1739. After the Revolution, under the State Government, Hon. Ezra L'Hommedieu was clerk from 1784 to 1810, and again in 1811. He died in office September 27, 1811. The book of which this volume is a copy was among his official books and papers. By some oversight it was not transferred to his successor in office, but remained in the hands of Thomas S. Lester, Sr., who died September 13, 1817. With the rest of his private papers it came into the possession of his only son Thomas S. Lester, Jr., who was a child at the time of his father's death. Many years later, when he came to manhood, his attention was called to the book by the late Charles B. Moore of New York City, and he saw at once that it was an original Book of Records, belonging to the County Clerk's office; and on October 13, 1871, he transmitted it to George C. Campbell, who then held the office, and it was thus restored to its proper place after having been lost to the public for a period of sixty years.

The life of Thomas S. Lester, who thus conferred upon the public a lasting benefit, was a curious episode in local history. Inheriting from his father a farm in Southold, he made these paternal acres his home during life, and was in the opinion of his neighbors a plodding, unambitious man, without aspirations for wealth. Dying intestate, it was found, to the astonishment of all who knew him, that by careful investments of his small income which were invariably successful, he had accumulated a fortune of $300,000, which went to heirs at law. Among these was a pauper, supported at public expense, who awoke one morning to find himself the possessor of thirty-eight thousand dollars. The sudden tran-

on from the porridge pot to the palace was too ch for him, and only a very brief interval elapsed most of which was spent in sampling ardent its in their varied forms) between leaving his e in the County House for one much narrower he village grave yard.

The absence of any punctuation in this volume y attract attention, but in this we follow the ginal. The printing is done from a copy made Orville B. Ackerly, Esq., and carefully compared h the original.

The writer hopes that this work will prove of use d benefit to all who feel an interest in Long Island tory, and in the acts and deeds of a generation
t has long since passed away.
